La Vie Dantoine:

Metaphrasis: A Byzantine Concept of Rewriting and Its Hagiographical Products, 2020-09-25 Metaphrasis A Byzantine Concept of Rewriting and Its Hagiographical Products represents a first and authoritative discussion of rewriting in Byzantium It brings together a rich variety of articles that treat the topic of hagiographical rewriting from various angles The contributors discuss and comment on different kinds of texts in Greek and other languages including Apophthegmata Patrum Passions Saints Lives Enkomia Miracle Collections Synaxaria and Menologia which date from late antiquity to late Byzantium The volume offers a series of case studies examining how the same legends evolved through time by the process of rewriting It is shown that the main driving force behind such rewriting was adaptation to different audiences and contexts This work argues that rewriting is central to Christian cultures in the Middle Ages Contributors are Andria Andreou Anne Alwis Stavroula Constantinou Koen de Temmerman Kristoffel Demoen Marina Detoraki Bernard Flusin Laura Franco Martin Hinterberger Christian H gel Daria D Resh Klazina Staat Julie van Pelt Robert Wi niewski and John Wortley Origene e la tradizione Alessandrina Lorenzo Perrone, 2003 Holiness and Power Rafal Kosinski, 2016-01-15 The book examines the origins development and the role of the monastic movement in the capital of Byzantium It was in the 5th century that a certain pattern of the functioning of monastic circles evolved within the specific framework of the ecclesiastical structures of Constantinople which was a political and ecclesiastical centre of the Eastern Roman Empire The bulk of the book is devoted to an analysis of the written accounts of the lives of the four Constantinopolitan holy men Hypatios Alexander Akoimetos Daniel the Stylite and Markellos Akoimetos The analysis proves that the model of relationship between the holy man and the secular authority would change less than the one between the holy man and the ecclesiastical authority The authors often cast the holy man in the role of father who was a kind of patron to the Emperor and his apparatus of government On the other hand one can observe a gradual change of the model of the relationship between the holy man and the ecclesiastical authorities from the initial opposition to a fully harmonious partnership All the Lives focus on the idea of the third kind of authority existing alongside the two others this type of authority is called religious and charismatic Desert Christians William Harmless, 2004-06-17 In this book William Harmless provides an accessible introduction to early Christian monastic literature from Egypt and beyond He introduces the reader to the major figures and literary texts as well as offering an up to date survey of current questions and scholarship in the field The text is enhanced by the inclusion of chronologies maps outlines illustrations and bibliographies The book will not only serve as a text for graduate and advanced undergraduate courses on early Christianity the Desert Fathers and Christian asceticism but it should stimulate further research by making the fruits of recent scholarship more readily and widely available Origeniana Nona György Heidl, Róbert Somos, 2009 This volume contains the written versions of the lectures delivered by the participants of the Colloquium Origenianum Nonum held in Pecs Hungary 29 August 2 September 2005 The main topic of the conference was Origen and the religious practice of his time Here 49 scholars from some 18 countries publish their newest findings on the greatest and most influential Christian thinker before Augustine who laid the foundation of the Biblical textual studies created systematic theology and was regarded as an authentic spiritual leader of Christianity The papers not only provide the best overview on a lively field of studies but also demonstrate how Origen's heritage in Christian history theology and spirituality carried with it the imprint of one of the most vital traditions of our civilization Similarly to the volumes of the earlier conferences Boston 1989 Chantilly 1993 Hofgeismar Marburg 1997 and Pisa 2001 the contributions are published by the series Bibliotheca Ephemeridum Theologicarum Lovaniensium Watteau Antoine Watteau, 1902 Foundations of Power and Conflicts of Authority in Late-antique Monasticism Alberto Camplani, Giovanni Filoramo, 2007 The volume offers the acts of a meeting held at the University of Turin on the foundations of power and the conflicts of authority as documented by the monastic sources of East and West in Late Antiquity with special reference to Max Weber's analysis of these notions The issue is here examined from a variety of perspectives the different meanings of power and authority in ancient monastic sources the criteria by which authority is established within the monastic organizations the kind of power and authority exercised towards outsiders the relationship between monks and other authorities especially the Church the monks and their economic activity the strategies for the solution of conflicts The wide range of historical and cultural problems raised by these questions is what the present volume tries to illuminate through individual studies of a number of specific phenomena events and figures from Shenute to John Cassian from Abraham of Kashkar to Maxim the Confessor paying particular attention to monasticism in Egypt Palestine Africa and Persia Approaches to the Byzantine Family Dr Shaun Tougher, Professor Leslie Brubaker, 2013-10-28 The study of the family is one of the major lacunas in Byzantine Studies Angeliki Laiou remarked in 1989 that the study of the Byzantine family is still in its infancy and this assertion remains true today The present volume addresses this lacuna It comprises 19 chapters written by international experts in the field which take a variety of approaches to the study of the Byzantine family and embrace a chronological span from the later Roman to the late Byzantine empire The context is established by chapters focusing on the Roman roots of the Byzantine family the Christianisation of the family and the nature of the family in contemporaneous cultures the late antique west and the Islamic east Key methodological approaches to the Byzantine family are highlighted and discussed in particular prosopographical and life course approaches The contribution of hagiography to the understanding of the Byzantine family is analysed by several authors other chapters on the family and children in art and on the archaeology of the Middle Byzantine house explore the material evidence that can shed light on the Byzantine family Overall the diversity of families that existed in Byzantium blood fictive metaphorical is emphasised and chapters consider the specific cases of ascetic monastic aristocratic and peasant families as well as the imperial family which is illuminated by the comparative case of a Caliphal family The volume is topped and tailed by a Preface and an Afterword by the editors which address the state of the field and consider the way ahead Thus the volume is vital in putting the subject of the Byzantine Family in sharp focus and setting the research agenda for the future

The Mobile Image from Watteau to Boucher David Pullins, 2024-08-13 Reframing long held assumptions about what distinguishes fine from decorative art this innovative study explores a mode of making seeing and thinking that slices across eighteenth century visual culture This book provides a new way of thinking about eighteenth century French art and visual culture by prioritizing production over reception Abandoning the ideologically driven discourse that distinguished fine from decorative art between the 1690s and 1770s The Mobile Image reveals how the two have been inextricably bound from the earliest stages of artistic instruction through the daily life of painters workshops In this study author David Pullins defines artisanal and artistic means of learning seeing and making through a system of mobile images motifs that were effectively engineered for mobility and designed never to be definitive always awaiting replication and circulation He examines the careers of Antoine Watteau Jean Baptiste Oudry and Fran ois Boucher situating them against a much broader cast of actors such as printmakers publishers anonymous studio assistants and architects among others to place eighteenth century painting within a wider context of media and making

Artists' Things Katie Scott, Hannah Williams, 2024-01-09 Histories of artists personal possessions shed new light on the lives of their owners Artists are makers of things Yet it is a measure of the disembodied manner in which we generally think about artists that we rarely consider the everyday items they own This innovative book looks at objects that once belonged to artists revealing not only the fabric of the eighteenth century art world in France but also unfamiliar and sometimes unexpected insights into the individuals who populated it including Jean Antoine Watteau Fran ois Boucher Jean Baptiste Greuze and Elisabeth Vig e LeBrun From the curious to the mundane from the useful to the symbolic these items have one thing in common they have all been eclipsed from historical view Some of the objects still exist like Jean Honor Fragonard s color box and Jacques Louis David s table Others survive only in paintings such as JeanSim on Chardin s cistern in his Copper Drinking Fountain or in documents like Fran ois Lemoyne s sword the instrument of his suicide Several were literally lost including pastelist Jean Baptiste Perronneau s pencil case In this fascinating book the authors engage with fundamental historical debates about production consumption and sociability through the lens of material goods owned by artists The free online edition of this open access publication is at www.getty.edu/publications/artists/things and includes zoomable illustrations Free PDF and EPUB downloads of the book are also available *La Bibliotheque d'Antoine du Verdier, seigneur de Vaupriuas, contenant le Catalogue de tous ceux qui ont escrit, ou traduit en françois ...
