English Home Language Paper November 2013 Memo:

Reconceptualizing English Education in a Multilingual Society Isabel Pefianco Martin, 2018-03-01 This book brings together chapters that describe, investigate and analyze the place of English in education in multilingual Philippines. Unlike most studies on languages in education which take a neutral de-contextualized stance, this volume takes a pluricentric view of the English language by positioning it in relation to its varieties as well as to other languages in the country. Because of the changing realities of English in the Philippines, traditional assumptions about the language as monolithic and unchanging as well as about how it should be taught and learned need to be revisited and re-conceptualized. The Welsh Language

Commissioner in Context Diarmait Mac Golla Chríost, 2016-07-20 It is the first book on the subject; much of the research data provides a unique insight to the development of government policy and is exclusive to this book. Several of the research results are quite striking and will be of great interest to academics and policy actors alike. Living by the Gun in Chad

Marielle Debos, 2016-10-15 How do people live in a country that has experienced rebellions and state-organised repressions for decades and that is still marked by routine forms of violence and impunity? What do combatants do when they are not mobilised for war? Drawing on over ten years of fieldwork conducted in Chad, Marielle Debos explains how living by the gun has become both an acceptable form of political expression and an everyday occupation. Contrary to the popular association of violence and chaos, she shows that these fighters continue to observe rules, frontiers and hierarchies even as their allegiances shift between rebel and government forces and as they drift between Chad, Libya, Sudan and the Central African Republic. Going further, she explores the role of the globalised politico-military entrepreneurs and highlights the long involvement of the French military in the country. Ultimately, the book demonstrates that ending the war is not enough. The issue is ending the inter-war which is maintained and reproduced by state violence. Combining ethnographic observation with in-depth theoretical analysis, Living by the Gun in Chad is a crucial contribution to our understanding of the intersections of war and peace. CTET Success Master Paper 1 for Class 1 to 5 for 2021 Exams Arihant Experts, 2021-05-26 1
