

Rediscover
GRAMMAR
with David Crystal

Do you know?

- when to use shall and when to use will?
- where to put the apostrophe?
- how to spot split-infinitives – and what to do about them?

This lively and entertaining book sets you on the path to better English. A leading language expert explains English Grammar in a way that everyone can understand. Whether you read it straight through or use the detailed index to look up tricky points, Rediscover Grammar will provide a wealth of easy-to-follow advice on a subject we all find difficult from time to time.

Professor David Crystal presents grammar for everyone, whether you're starting from scratch or want to brush up on what you once learnt – and he shows that it really isn't so difficult.

This is a revised edition which discusses issues of crucial importance to the curriculum, such as language variety and the nature of Standard English.

Rediscover grammar – an easy guide to getting it right.
