REPERE Il s'agit pas d'infirmer le lien de causalité en médecine. Il s'agit juste d'écarter les hypothèses de relations causales. On dit que les relations sont des relations, corrélées et non causales après un peu d'analyse et de réflexion.

Abstract | This study explored the impact of coaching on students' self-efficacy and performance. The study was conducted with 100 students in a high school. The results showed that coaching had a positive impact on students' self-efficacy and performance. The study also found that students who received coaching were more likely to be motivated and to persist in their efforts. The study has implications for the development of coaching programs in schools.
