De-/re-contextualizing Conference Interpreting Ebru Diriker, 2004-01-01 This groundbreaking study explores Simultaneous Conference Interpreting SI by focusing on interpreters as professionals working in socio cultural contexts and on the interdependency between these contexts and actual SI behavior While previous research on SI has been dominated by cognitive and psycholinguistic approaches Diriker s work explores SI in relation to the broader and more immediate socio cultural contexts by investigating the representation of the professional in the meta discourse and by exploring the presence of interpreters and the nature of the interpreted utterance at an actual conference Making use of participant observations interviews and analysis of conference transcripts Diriker challenges some of the widely held assumptions about SI She suggests that the interpreter s delivery represents not only the speaker but a multiplicity of speaker positions and that this multiplicity may well be a source of tension or vulnerability as well as strength for interpreters Her analysis also highlights how interpreters negotiate meaning in SI and underscores the need for more concerted efforts to explore SI in authentic contexts Working as a Professional Translator JC Penet, 2024-04-25 What does it take to be a professional translator in the 21st century What are the opportunities and challenges of a career in translation How do you find that first job How do you ensure that work remains sustainable over time Combining industry insights the latest research in the field of translation studies and a career coaching approach this textbook takes aspiring translators on an explorative journey that helps them answer these questions for themselves so they can become the professional translators they aspire to be Each chapter of this hands on guide opens with key questions that budding translators might typically ask themselves and encourages them to reflect on their relevance for their own situation through regular discussion points and Topics for discussion and assignments Targeted suggestions for further reading at the end of each chapter guide users in deepening their knowledge Written primarily for students on translation courses the accessible language tone and design of this book will appeal to anyone who is thinking of embarking upon a career in translation Additional resources are available on the Routledge Translation Studies Portal Translation Ethics Joseph Lambert, 2023-03-22 Translation Ethics introduces the topic of ethics for students researchers and professional translators Based on a successful course and written by an experienced instructor the Introduction and nine core chapters offer an accessible examination of a wide range of interlocking topic areas which combine to form a cohesive whole guiding students through the key debates Built upon a theoretical background founded in philosophy and moral theory it outlines the main contributions in the area and traces the development of thought on ethics from absolutism to relativism or from staunchly argued textual viewpoints to current lines of thought placing the translator as agent and an active even interventionary mediator The textbook then examines the place of ethical enquiry in the context of professional translation critiquing provision such as codes of ethics Each chapter includes key discussion points suggested topics for essays presentations or in class debates and an array of contextualised examples and case studies Additional resources including videos weblinks online activities and PowerPoint slide presentations on the Routledge Translation studies portal provide valuable extra pedagogical support This wide ranging and accessible textbook has been carefully designed to be key reading for a wide range of courses including distance learning courses from translation and interpreting ethics to translation theory and practice Recharting Territories Gisele Dionísio da Silva, Maura Radicioni, 2022-09-15 Since the inception of Translation Studies in the 1970s its researchers have held regular metareflections Largely based on the assessment of translation and interpreting as two distinct but related modes of language mediation each with its own research culture these intradisciplinary debates have sought to take stock of the state of research within an ever expanding discipline in search of institutional identity and autonomy Recharting Territories proposes a more widespread and systematic intradisciplinary approach to researching translational phenomena one which
