

Age/Gex distribution	A model used in population geography that describes the age and number of males and females within a given population, also called population pyramid
Baby boom	A cohort of individuals born in the US between 1946 and 1964, which came just after WWII in a time of relative peace and prosperity. These conditions allowed for better education and job opportunities, discouraging high rates of both marriage and fertility.
Carrying capacity	The largest number of people that the environment of a particular area can sustainably support.
Census tract	Small-territory subdivisions, usually containing between 2000 and 8000 persons, distinguished by the US Census Bureau as areas of relatively uniform population characteristics, economic status, and living conditions.
Chain migration	The migration event in which individuals follow the migratory path of preceding friends or family members to an existing community.
Child mortality rate	Number of deaths per thousand children within the first 5 years of life.
Cohort	A population group unified by a specific common characteristic, such as age, and subsequently treated as a statistical unit.
Cotton Belt	The term by which the American South used to be known, as cotton historically dominated the agricultural economy of the region. The name used to now known as the New South or Sun Belt because people have migrated there from other cities in the industrial North for a better climate and new job opportunities.
Crude birth rate	The number of live births per year per 1000 people.
Crude death rate	The number of deaths per year per 1000 people.
Demographic accounting equation	An equation that summarizes the amount of growth or decline in a population within a country during a particular time period taking into account both natural increase and net migration.
Demographic transition model	A sequence of demographic changes to which a country moves from high birth and death rates to low birth and death rates through time.
Demography	The study of human populations, their temporal and spatial dynamics.
Dependency ratio	The ratio of the number of people who are either too old or too young to provide for themselves to the number of people who must support them through their own labor. This is usually expressed in the form $x/100$, where x equals the number of dependents.
Doubling time	Time period required for a population experiencing exponential growth to double in size completely.
Emigration	The process of moving out of a particular country, usually the individual person's country of origin.

Stavrakopoulou, 2021-01-28 Life and Death Social Perspectives on Biblical Bodies explores some of the social material and ideological dynamics shaping life and death in both the Hebrew Bible and ancient Israel and Judah. Analysing topics ranging from the bodily realities of gestation subsistence and death and embodied performances of gender power and status to the imagined realities of post mortem and divine existence the essays in this volume offer exciting new trajectories in our understanding of the ways in which embodiment played out in the societies in which the texts of the Hebrew Bible emerged.

Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December A Jew to the Jews David J. Rudolph, 2011 David Rudolph's primary aim is to demonstrate that scholars overstate their case when they maintain that 1 Cor 9 19 23 is incompatible with a Torah observant Paul. A secondary aim is to show how one might understand 1 Cor 9 19 23 as the discourse of a Jew who remained within the bounds of pluriform Second Temple Judaism. Part I addresses the intertextual contextual and textual case for the traditional reading of 1 Cor 9 19 23. Weaknesses are pointed out and alternative approaches are considered. The exegetical case in Part II centres on interpreting 1 Cor 9 19 23 in light of Paul's recapitulation in 1 Cor 10 32 11 1 which concludes with the statement Be imitators of me as I am of Christ. Given the food related and hospitality context of 1 Cor 8 10 and Paul's reference to dominical sayings that point back to Jesus example and rule of adaptation it is argued that 1 Cor 9 19 23 reflects Paul's imitation of Jesus accommodation oriented table fellowship with all. As Jesus became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews Pharisees and sinners Paul became all things to all people through eating with ordinary Jews strict Jews those under the law and Gentile sinners.
