Accommodating the Republic Kirsten E. Wood, 2023-11-08 People have gathered in public drinking places to drink relax socialize and do business for hundreds of years For just as long critics have described taverns and similar drinking establishments as sources of individual ruin and public disorder Examining these dynamics as Americans surged westward in the early nineteenth century Kirsten E Wood argues that entrepreneurial improvement minded men integrated many village and town taverns into the nation s rapidly developing transportation network and used tavern spaces and networks to raise capital promote innovative businesses practice genteel sociability and rally support for favored causes often while drinking the staggering amounts of alcohol for which the period is justly famous White men s unrivaled freedom to use taverns for their own pursuits of happiness gave everyday significance to citizenship in the early republic Yet white men did not have taverns to themselves Sharing tavern spaces with other Americans intensified white men s struggles to define what and for whom taverns should be At the same time temperance and other reform movements increasingly divided white men along lines of party conscience and class In both conflicts some improvement minded white men found common cause with middle class white women and Black activists who had their own stake in rethinking taverns and citizenship

The Sex Is Out of This World Sherry Ginn, Michael G. Cornelius, Donald E. Palumbo, 2012-11-08 Science fiction can be translated into real unreality More than a genre like fantasy which creates entirely new realms of possibility science fiction constructs its possibilities from what is real from what is indeed possible or conceivably so This collection then looks to understand and explore the unreal reality to note ways in which our culture s continually changing and evolving mores of sex and sexuality are reflected in dissected by and deconstructed through the genre of science fiction This book is a collection of new essays with the general objective of filling a gap in the literature about sex and science fiction although some work has gone before none of it is recent The essays herein explore the myriad ways in which authors regardless of format print film television etc envision very different beings expressing this most fundamental of human behaviors

Stanislavski and The Method for the 21st Century Actor David Barrouk, 2024-10-31 Written by a highly influential post Stanislavskian practitioner this book offers an accessible and contemporary interpretation of The Method setting out techniques and exercises to train and develop actors today Going back to the roots of Method Acting and the work of Lee Strasberg and Stanislavski and using Barrouk s own unique practice as a lens through which to view it The Method here is refreshed as something nuanced contemporary safe and practical that will benefit all actors even those most skeptical of it Through making a case for the relevance of Method Acting to our modern times and preserving its essence while updating its notions the book covers the full range of the acting process including character analysis questions active analysis actions individual and group exploration identifying actions and developing creating a scene in rehearsal Practical exercises and activities are woven throughout the text offering a modern framework in which to consider this practice The benefits of looking at Stanislavski through both a contemporary and a different cultural lens is invaluable for students and actors alike and they will appreciate the playful lively and provocative approach in contrast to the sacred tone of other books on the same topic Voet's Principles of Biochemistry Donald Voet,Charlotte W. Pratt,Judith G. Voet,2018 Voets Principles of Biochemistry Global Edition addresses the enormous advances in biochemistry particularly in the areas of structural biology and bioinformatics It provides a solid biochemical foundation that is rooted in chemistry to prepare students for the scientific challenges of the future New information related to advances in biochemistry and experimental approaches for studying complex systems are introduced Notes on a variety of human diseases and pharmacological effectors have been expanded to reflect recent research findings While continuing in its tradition of presenting complete and balanced coverage this Global Edition includes new pedagogy and enhanced visuals that provide a clear pathway for student learning 4e de couverture Creating African Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor,Heather Akou,Nicola Stylianou,2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 Books in Print ,1994
