

Section	Section 1: Identification and evaluation of sources	Marks	Level descriptor
Section A: Identification and evaluation of sources (6 marks)	This section requires students to analyse in detail two of the sources that they will use in their investigation. The sources can be either primary or secondary sources. In this section students must <ul style="list-style-type: none"> clearly state the question they have chosen to investigate (this must be stated as a question) include a brief explanation of the nature of the two sources they have selected for detailed analysis, including an explanation of their relevance to the investigation analyse two sources in detail. With reference to the origins, purpose and content, the student should analyse the value and limitations of the two sources in relation to the investigation. A crucial element of this section of the internal assessment task is formulating an appropriate question to investigate. The six key concepts for the History course (causation, consequence, continuity, change, significance and perspectives) can be a very useful starting point in helping students to formulate a question. The following are examples of historical investigations recently submitted by students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How systematic were the deportations of the Jewish population of Dusseldorf to Mirak between 1941 and 1942? How significant were economic problems as a cause of the Bamberg Witch Trials (1623–1633)? What were the most important reasons for the failure of Operation Market Garden? To what extent was weak leadership responsible for the collapse of the Egyptian Old Kingdom in 2125 BC? 	0	The work does not reach a standard described by the descriptors below.
		1–2	The question for investigation has been stated. The student has identified and selected appropriate sources, but there is little or no explanation of the relevance of the sources to the investigation. The response describes, but does not analyse or evaluate, two of the sources.
		3–4	An appropriate question for investigation has been stated. The student has identified and selected appropriate sources, and there is some explanation of the relevance of the sources to the investigation. There is some analysis and evaluation of two sources, but reference to their value and limitations is limited.
		5–6	An appropriate question for investigation has been clearly stated. The student has identified and selected appropriate and relevant sources, and there is a clear explanation of the relevance of the sources to the investigation. There is a detailed analysis and evaluation of two sources with explicit discussion of the value and limitations of two of the sources for the investigation, with reference to the origins, purpose and content of the two sources.

Seeking Adam Smith: Finding The Shadow Curriculum Of Business Eli P Cox Iii,2017-03-17 Seeking Adam Smith provides a fascinating insider s explanation for why business school faculty members including the author bear some responsibility for the highly destructive corporate practices evident throughout the first sixteen years of the 21st century Since the Great Recession substantial resources and effort have been expended to incorporate ethics and corporate social responsibility into business curricula The effectiveness of these efforts has been limited because they have little impact on the technical and core business courses serving as the gateway to the highest paying jobs Students and practitioners may be led to conclude falsely that the business world is an ethics free zone Seeking Adam Smith demonstrates that greed is highly destructive motive for conducting business and the notion that greed is good is nowhere to be found in the Wealth of Nations despite claims by some of the world s leading economists Cox offers alternative economic perspectives that are more realistic and less prone to misuse than those permeating the current business curricula Seeking Adam Smith also contains a forward written by Thomas J Ward who served as Senior Managing Partner of Bear Stearns during its demise and an afterward by Sherron Watkins Enron whistle blower and Time Person of the Year 2002 The United Service Journal ,1838 The Oxford Encyclopedia of Philosophy, Science, and Technology in Islam Salim Ayduz,2014 The main reference source for questions of Islamic philosophy science and technology amongst Western engaged readers and academics in general and legal researchers in particular Lightning through the Clouds Mark Sanagan,2020-05-03 Lightning through the Clouds is the first English language life and times biography of Izz al Din al Qassam a preeminent figure who helped to reshape the political and religious landscape of the region A Syrian born Egyptian educated cleric he went from the battlefields of World War I to join the anticolonialist fight against the French in Syria Sentenced to be executed by the French military he managed to escape to Palestine where he became an increasingly popular presence moved by the plight of the poor and disenfranchised Outraged by British rule and the encroachment of Zionism he formed a secret society to resist the colonization of Palestine first by the British and then by Jewish immigrants from Europe once again taking up arms and advocating for a moral political and military jihad as the only solution His death at the hands of Palestine Police in 1935 drew thousands to his funeral and sparked the 1936 1939 Arab Revolt His influence continues to be felt in the region for example the military wing of the Palestinian Hamas organization is named the Izz al Din al Qassam Brigades Al Qassam is either revered or reviled depending on the observers perspective but he is without doubt a fascinating and historically significant individual whose influence on the past and our present makes this examination of his life both important and timely Coup in Damascus Carl Rihan,2025-06-17 Coup in Damascus examines the military takeover of Syria in 1949 an event which precipitated the rise of authoritarianism across the region Connecting economics politics and history it challenges traditional interpretations grounded in international relations by shifting the focus away from geopolitics and postcolonial studies affirming instead the primacy of cost calculating utility driven political action By bringing neoclassical and Austrian economics into contact with Middle East history Coup in Damascus demonstrates how unsound monetary practices the disruption of trade routes and excessive interventionism upset social and institutional

equilibriums thereby leading to authoritarianism Coup in Damascus also highlights how lingering tensions or spillover costs normally resolved through economic and political exchange congested political systems thereby triggering violence and recurrence
