Looking Differently at Nearsightedness and Myopia Steve Gallop, 2022-09-24 Steve Gallop OD has been practicing optometry in Pennsylvania since 1990 His personal experience as a patient along with his many years as an optometrist give him a unique perspective on the nuances of the evaluation and treatment of many types of vision problems including myopia. Many people professional and otherwise are offering various options for dealing with myopia nearsightedness. This book provides a more thorough perspective on what is available than what is typically provided by other sources. Unlike so many other books, this is in no way a how to do it yourself guide. Instead, it is meant to explain the complexities of myopia how you might begin to understand your own situation and how to go about finding the best people to work with to improve your vision.
