Globalization And Language In Contact Scale Migration And Communicative Practices:

Globalization and Language in Contact James Collins, Stef Slembrouck, Mike Baynham, 2009-12-29 An excellent study of linkages between the global and local demonstrating opportunities and challenges for contemporary sociolinguistics

Language, Migration and Social Inequalities Alexandre Duchene, Melissa Moyer, Celia Roberts, 2013-11-12 Migration and the mobility of citizens around the globe pose important challenges to the linguistic and cultural homogeneity that nation states rely on for defining their physical boundaries and identity as well as the rights and obligations of their citizens A new social order resulting from neoliberal economic practices globalisation and outsourcing also challenges traditional ways the nation state has organized its control over the people who have typically travelled to a new country looking for work or better life chances This collection provides an account of the ways language addresses core questions concerning power and the place of migrants in various institutional and workplace settings It brings together contributions from a range of geographical settings to understand better how linguistic inequality is re produced in this new economic order The SAGE Handbook of Sociolinguistics Ruth Wodak, Barbara Johnstone, Paul E Kerswill, 2011 This Handbook answers a long standing need for an up to date comprehensive international in depth critical survey of the history trajectory data results and key figures involved in sociolinguistics The result is a work of unprecedented coverage and insight It is all here from the foundational contributions to the field to the impact of new media new technologies of communication globalization trans border fluidities and agendas of research The Oxford Handbook of Ritual Language David Tavárez, 2024-11-14 This volume brings together representative case studies and surveys that explore research into ritual language covering theoretical and methodological approaches that reflect traditional inquiries and more recent studies This recent literature contends that ritual language hinges on the construction of authoritative ontological models about the cosmos and its inhabitants Ritual speech also orchestrates performances that articulate representations of collective identities and rests on the diversity of hierarchical forms of authoritative knowledge displayed in both oblique and direct terms Moreover performances texts and narratives associated with ritual practices are closely entwined with historical accounts that navigate current memories recast in a diversity of ways about ancestral beings and distant or recent pasts or delimit a terrain in which dialectical relationships with colonial hegemony and Christian indoctrination emerge to transform the social order Ritual narrative often offers in its structure and delivery momentous representation of the social order social institutions social difference and collective identities and may also be constituted by claims about relations among species non human actors and material culture The Oxford Handbook of Ritual Language addresses foundational questions regarding the scope structuring use and consequences of ritual language The chapters examine the relationship between speakers consciousness and verbal ritual performances and between ritual language hegemony collective authority and the social world As the study of ritual speech hinges on extensive analyses of linguistic choices and styles the contributors draw on data from a wide range of language groups and societies in the Americas the Middle East the Pacific South Asia and the Indian Ocean

Globalizing Language Policy and Planning Máiréad Moriarty, 2015-07-28 The book examines the changing relationship between minority languages and language policy and planning in the context of globalization through an examination of the Irish language context It demonstrates how localized practices are involved in the refashioning of the value of the Irish language Global and local perspectives on language contact Katrin Pfadenhauer, Sofia

Rüdiger, Valentina Serreli, 2024-01-30 This edited volume pays tribute to traditional and innovative language contact research bringing together contributors with expertise on different languages examining general phenomena of language contact and specific linguistic features which arise in language contact scenarios A particular focus lies on contact between languages of unbalanced political and symbolic power language contact and group identity and the linguistic and societal implications of language contact settings especially considering contemporary global migration streams Drawing on various methodological approaches among others corpus and contrastive linguistics linguistic landscapes sociolinguistic interviews and ethnographic fieldwork the contributions describe phenomena of language contact between and with Romance languages Semitic languages and English es Ethnography and Language Policy Teresa L. McCarty, 2014-04-04 Seeking to expand policy discourses in ways that lead to social justice for all this volume uses a critical sociocultural and ethnographic approach to address a variety of pressing language planning and policy issues contextualized in case studies Multilingual Memories

Robert Blackwood, John Macalister, 2019-10-17 Drawing on a range of disciplines from within the humanities and social sciences Multilingual Memories addresses questions of remembering and forgetting from an explicitly multilingual perspective From a museum at Victoria Falls in Zambia to a Japanese American internment in Arkansas this book probes how the medium of the communication of memories affirms social orders across the globe Applying linguistic landscape approaches to a wide variety of monuments and memorials from around the world this book identifies how multilingualism and its absence contributes to the inevitable partiality of public memorials Using a number of different methods including multimodal discourse analysis code preferences interaction orders and indexicality the chapters explore how memorials have the potential to erase linguistic diversity as much as they can entextualize multilingualism With examples from Africa Asia Australasia Europe and North and South America this volume also examines the extent to which multilingual memories legitimize not only specific discourses but also individuals particular communities and ethno linguistic groups often to the detriment of others Linguistic Landscapes and Educational Spaces Edina Krompák, Víctor Fernández-Mallat, Stephan

Meyer, 2021-12-20 How do written and other signs shape our educational spaces and practices and how in turn are these written and other signs shaped by the educational spaces and practices they inhabit Building on enquiries into the linguistic landscapes of public spaces this volume addresses these questions and thereby further advances the educational turn in linguistic and semiotic landscapes studies Prompted by social changes associated with migration and superdiversity as well as imperatives to promote pluri and multilingualism the studies collected here speak to the interest of researchers and practitioners in educational linguistics and educational sciences They confirm the value of combining empirical analyses of linguistic and semiotic educationscapes with action research on mobilising linguistic landscapes as pedagogical resources to promote multilingual equality

Dynamics of Linguistic Diversity Hagen Peukert, Ingrid Gogolin, 2017-05-24 This volume emphasizes the energetic nature of linguistic diversity and its consequences of how we think about language how it affects the individual education in school and urban spaces across the globe Hence linguistic diversity reflects the constant state of rapid change prevalent in modern societies bearing opportunities as well as challenges It is the prime objective of this selection of contributions to give a differentiated picture of the chances of linguistic diversity Dynamics of Linguistic Diversity pays tribute to more recent developments in the study of language applied linguistics and education sciences Contributions in this volume discuss how the concept of language is contextualized in a world of polylinguaging investigate latent factors of influence multilingual individuals multilingual proficiency multilingual practices and development multilingual communication as well as teaching practices and whether they foster or hamper multilingual development

Narrating Migrations from Africa and the Middle East Ruth Breeze, Sarali Gintsburg, Mike Baynham, 2022-09-08 Exploring narratives produced by different groups of MENA and SSA migrants or refugees this book focuses on the spatial and temporal aspects of their experiences In doing so the authors examine a wide range of accounts of journeys to host countries and memories or recreations of home The spaces that migrants occupy or not in their new country the spaces and times they share with local populations and different conceptions of space and time across generations are also investigated as are how feelings surrounding space and time are manifested within these different narratives and their affective discursive practices Taking both a traditional linear view of migration as well as a multilinear multimodal approach the book presents an in depth investigation into the ways in which people inhabit multiple real and digital spaces

Storytelling in the Digital World Anna De Fina, Sabina Perrino, 2019-06-15 Storytelling in the Digital World explores new emerging narrative practices as they are enacted on digital platforms such as Amazon Facebook Twitter and YouTube Contributors online ethnographies investigate a wide range of themes including the nature of processes of transformation and recontextualization of offline events into digital narratives the effects of digital anonymity and pseudonymity on narrative practices the strategies through which virtual communities discursively work together to solidify and negotiate their sociocultural identities the tensions between the affordances that characterize different online media and the communicative needs of users the structures and modes in which virtual users construct and enact participatory practices in these environments and the significance of different spatiotemporal dimensions in the encoding sharing and appreciation of stories More generally the volume engages with some of the theoretical and methodological challenges that the growing presence of digital technologies and media poses to narrative analysis Originally published as special issue of Narrative Inquiry 27 2

2017 The Handbook of Narrative Analysis Anna De Fina, Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2019-02-12 Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field The Handbook of Narrative Analysis is the first comprehensive collection of sociolinguistic scholarship on narrative analysis to be published Organized thematically to provide an accessible guide for how to engage with narrative without prescribing a rigid analytic framework Represents established modes of narrative analysis juxtaposed with innovative new methods for conducting narrative research Includes coverage of the latest advances in narrative analysis from work on social media to small stories research Introduces and exemplifies a practice based approach to narrative analysis that separates narrative from text so as to broaden the field beyond the printed page

Identity and Language Learning Bonny Norton, 2013-10-04 Identity and Language Learning draws on a longitudinal case study of immigrant women in Canada to develop new ideas about identity investment and imagined communities in the field of language learning and teaching Bonny Norton demonstrates that a poststructuralist conception of identity as multiple a site of struggle and subject to change across time and place is highly productive for understanding language learning Her sociological construct of investment is an important complement to psychological theories of motivation The implications for language teaching and teacher education are profound Now including a new comprehensive Introduction as well as an Afterword by Claire Kramsch this second edition addresses the following central questions Under what conditions do language learners speak listen read and write How are relations of power implicated in the negotiation of identity How can teachers address the investments and imagined identities of learners The book integrates research theory and classroom practice and is essential reading for students teachers and researchers in the fields of language learning and teaching TESOL applied linguistics and literacy This book is open access under a CC BY ND licence Remix Multilingualism Quentin Williams, 2017-09-21 Remixing multilingualism is conceptualised in this book as engaging in the linguistic act of using combining and manipulating multilingual forms It is about creating new ways of doing multilingualism through cultural acts and identities and involving a process that invokes bricolage This book is an ethnographic study of multilingual remixing achieved by highly multilingual participants in the local hip hop culture of Cape Town In globalised societies today previously marginalized speakers are carving out new and innovating spaces to put on display their voices and identities through the creative use of multilingualism This book contributes to the development of new conceptual insights and theoretical developments on multilingualism in the global South by applying the notions of stylization performance performativity entextualisation and enregisterment This takes place through interviews performance analysis and interactional analysis showing how young multilingual speakers stage different personae styles registers and language varieties Translation and Translanguaging Mike Baynham, Tong King Lee, 2019-06-11 Translation and Translanguaging brings into dialogue translanguaging as a theoretical lens and translation as an applied practice This book is the first to ask what can translanguaging tell us about translation and what can translation tell us about translanguaging Translanguaging originated as a term to characterize bilingual and multilingual repertoires This book extends the linguistic focus to consider translanguaging and translation in tandem across languages language varieties registers and discourses and in a diverse range of contexts everyday multilingual settings involving community interpreting and cultural brokering embodied interaction in sports text based commodities and multimodal experimental poetics Characterizing translanguaging as the deployment of a spectrum of semiotic resources the book illustrates how perspectives from translation can enrich our understanding of translanguaging and how translanguaging with its notions of repertoire and the moment can contribute to a practice based account of translation Illustrated with examples from a range of languages including Spanish Chinese Japanese Czech Lingala and varieties of English this timely book will be essential reading for researchers and graduate students in sociolinguistics translation studies multimodal studies applied linguistics and related areas
