Ink Splatters Joyann,2011-11 I survived Hurricane Katrina I was taken from my hometown New Orleans Louisiana back in September of 2005 and flown to Arkansas I remained there for a period of five years Being uprooted was more devastating than facing the actual storm For years prior to Katrina I d lived my life mostly based upon my own desires Still I considered myself to be a law abiding responsible and caring citizen I was upset by the storm because it placed me in a position where I had to become dependent on others Moreover I was robbed of my material assets and left to fend against the elements without an ounce of leverage But I was way off course wrong All of my life I d become incessantly dependent upon materialistic garb but when the storm hit it was God and his bevy of angels who protected me It was difficult learning to eat humble pie and become submissive to ideas that weren t my own The time I spent in Arkansas helped me renew my spirit regain my personal relationship with the Master and realign my thoughts I am still no saint but my overall vision is better The kindness of strangers brought me to my knees I am forever indebted to those kindred citizens of Arkansas who befriended and assisted me in self preservation and helped me recognize the need for Jesus in my life I am JoyAnn a native of New Orleans Louisiana In April 2009 I released a book In Search of Higher Grounds In that book I attempted to capture the essence of the storm and how it wreaked havoc on my life I told of my rescue and evacuation in addition I shared some insight into cultural differences which also left me treading dangerous waters Today I am back in New Orleans living in my repaired property and discovering that things may never be the same As I watch my community struggle from lack of infrastructure and see lawmakers vie to overturn corruption murder and thievery I am prayerful Yet I am not discouraged because if there s one thing survival has taught me it is that He will not abandon us Railway Age ,1943 Air
