Real and Fictional in Twentieth-Century French Writing Sam Ferguson, 2018-03-09 This volume is the first study of the diary in French writing across the twentieth century as a genre which includes both fictional and non-fictional works From the 1880s it became apparent to writers in France that their diaries a supposedly private form of writing would probably come to be published strongly affecting the way their readers viewed their other published works and their very persona as an author More than any other Andr Gide embraced the literary potential of the diary the first part of this book follows his experimentation with the diary in the fictional works Les Cahiers d Andr Walter 1891 and Paludes 1895 in his diary of the composition of his great novel Le Journal des faux monnayeurs 1926 and in his monumental Journal 1889 1939 1939 The second part follows developments in diary writing after the Second World War inflected by radical changes in attitudes towards the writing subject Raymond Queneau s works published under the pseudonym of Sally Mara 1947 1962 used the diary playfully at a time when the writing subject was condemned by the literary avant garde Roland Barthes s experiments with the diary 1977 1979 took it to the extremes of its formal possibilities at the point of a return of the writing subject Annie Ernaux s published diaries 1993 2011 demonstrate the role of the diary in the modern field of life writing Throughout the century the diary has repeatedly been used to construct an oeuvre and author but also to call these fundamental literary concepts into question

The Mother in/and French Literature ,2021-11-22 The essays in this volume investigate maternity and the figure of the mother in French literature from France Switzerland Quebec and Africa from the seventeenth century to the present Drawing on cultural history psychoanalysis and feminist theory as well as more traditional methods they present maternity as a source of frustration and of joy mothers as repressed and revered daughters as wounded and loving sons as domineering and dependent Indeed few things are simple where mothers and especially where writing about mothers are concerned

Pierre Loti and the Theatricality of Desire Peter James Turberfield,2008 Pierre Loti and the Theatricality of Desire offers an original analysis of patterns of unconscious desire observable in the life and work of the French orientalist writer Pierre Loti It aims to reconcile attitudes and conduct that have been regarded as contradictory and not amenable to analysis by locating the unconscious urges that motivate them It looks at the ambiguous feelings Loti expresses towards his mother the conflicting desires inherent in his bisexuality and his deeply ambiguous sense of a cultural identity as expressed through his cross cultural transvestism The political implications of this reappraisal are also considered offering a potential reassessment of the apparently exploitative nature of much of Loti s writing This new reading in terms of the unconscious not only serves as a way of understanding inconsistencies but also suggests how such new interpretations can offer an alternative way of viewing the hierarchies of power his work portrays on both a sexual and political level This volume is consequently of interest to those interested in gender studies and sexual politics and offers a way of appreciating writing that might otherwise appear dated and embarrassingly sexist and colonialist in content to twenty first century readers

Le Corps dans le roman des écrivaines syriennes contemporaines Martina Censi,2016-05-02 Le Corps dans le roman des crivaines syriennes contemporaines de Martina Censi explore les repr sentations du corps dans un corpus de romans en arabe publi s entre 2004 et 2011 par six crivaines syriennes L auteure conjugue l analyse du texte litt raire avec la critique féministe et les études de genre Par cette approche interdisciplinaire Censi démontre que l'attention réservée par ces écrivaines aux représentations du corps féminin et masculin témoigne de leurs engagements dans la lutte pour l'émancipation des femmes mais aussi et surtout dans celle pour l'affirmation de l'individu dans la société syrienne contemporaine Les corps des personnages marqués par leur différence unique sont le lieu symbolique de la négociation entre les instances individuelles et collectives In Le Corps dans le roman des écrivaines syriennes contemporaines Martina Censi explores the representation of the body in a selection of Arabic novels published between 2004 and 2011 by six Syrian women authors Taking an interdisciplinary approach which combines analysis of the literary texts with Feminist Criticism and Gender Studies Censi demonstrates that by focusing on the representation of female and male bodies these novelists deal not only with feminist issues related to women's emancipation The author reveals that they also engage in a broader analysis concerning the status of the individual in contemporary Syrian society Marked by their unique difference the characters' bodies become the symbolic location for the negotiation between individual and collective claims

Itineraries of the Contemporary Novel in English François Gallix, 2007 Dictionnaire thématique du roman de mœurs en France, 1814-1914: J-Z Philippe Hamon, Alexandrine Viboud, 2008 Reprise de l'édition de 2003 qui largit la perspective Ce dictionnaire relève des thèmes récurrents du roman naturaliste réaliste français du XIX^e siècle d'auteurs tels que Zola Daudet Maupassant Loti Mirbeau Rosny etc Il entreprend d'explorer ainsi les différents aspects de la vie en société d'Abandon Voyage en passant par Prostitution Travail ou Alcool Memento Du journal intime au monologue intérieur dans la littérature du XX^e siècle Anne Chevalier, Françoise Lioure, 2008 Du journal intime fictif au monologue intérieur Larbaud s'est efforcé de trouver la forme d'écriture qui lui permettrait d'exprimer l'intériorité et de rompre avec le récit romanesque objectif qu'il jugeait inapte cette entreprise Si ses recherches et ses tentatives sont analysées dans certains articles recueillis dans ce volume il était nécessaire par l'étude d'œuvres de la fin du 20^e siècle nos jours d'examiner quel avenir était promise cette forme que Larbaud revendiquait d'avant-garde et quelles modifications elle a subies Hindsight and Insight William F. Edmiston, 2010-11 William F. Edmiston revises current theories of what narratologists call focalization and applies his revised theory to four eighteenth century French memoir novels Hindsight and Insight contributes to our knowledge of the history and evolution of the novel by demonstrating that France's earliest novelists were already engaged in the kinds of narrative experimentation that are usually associated with modern writers It presents an analysis of the narrative point of view in both its theoretical aspects and its practical applications Edmiston exposes the inadequacies of current concepts of focalization and proposes a revised concept that is applicable to personal narration one that can accommodate all the focal possibilities available to the first person narrator He applies this concept to four French memoir novels Les Égarés du cœur et de l'esprit by Marivaux Manon Lescaut by Prévost and La Religieuse by Diderot Each of these well known novels offers a different case study and raises specific theoretical questions of selective focalization forms of reported speech problems of temporal ambiguity manipulation of the reader narratorial reliability and cognitive privilege Edmiston's study proposes a reading of the novels that resolves certain problems of interpretation raised by other recent studies

Soi-disant Australian Society for French Studies. Annual Conference, Joe Hardwick, 2005 A cross section of current work in autobiographical studies Soi-disant brings together essays on Raymond Queneau Georges Perec Jean Genet Jeanne Hyvrard Amelie Nothomb Yves Navarre Catherine Pozzi Marie Bashkirtseff and the history of Maghreb literature It highlights the intertextual nature of autobiographical writing the ways in which it is shaped by other texts of various genres and bears the traces of these textual intersections Reflecting contemporary preoccupations in autobiographical studies the collection demonstrates that the aim has moved beyond the policing of a genre Autobiographical practices are taken to be plural and considered as sets of discursive manoeuvres The essays are thus concerned less with defining what life writing is than with raising questions about what it can do performatively whether in diaries autobiographies subtitled as such and novels read as autobiographies or in such unlikely genres as fourteenth century travel writing in Arabic and the elaborate games of OuLiPo texts
