M. Wijdicks, 2024 As a medium that aims to connect people through the communication and interpretation of experiences cinema is uniquely positioned to showcase cultural misunderstandings around issues of mental health Frames of Minds traces a history of psychiatry in film concentrating on the major paradigm shifts in neuropsychiatry over the last century Oftentimes representations of psychiatry mental illness and psychotic breakdown are reduced to tropes and used by filmmakers as a tool for plot progression Conversely films can be used as an avenue to voice common concerns about the missteps of psychiatry including overdiagnosis and mistreatment Dr Eelco Wijdicks provides fresh insights into the minds of filmmakers and how they creatively tackle this complex topic How do filmmakers use psychiatry and what do they want us to see What is their frame of mind psychoanalytically biologically sociologically anthropologically Were they influenced by their own prejudices about the origins of mental illness How does this influence the direction of their films Examining the history of film alongside developments in neuropsychiatry Frames of Minds uncovers a cinematic language of psychiatry By taking chances to portray mental illness filmmakers aim to achieve a sense of reality and provide catharsis for viewers through the act of dramatization Ultimately the history of psychiatry in film is a history of the public perception of medicine and the ways psychiatry is understood by directors writers actors and audiences

Transfigurations Ashbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grønstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Transfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs The Kubrickon Jasun Horsley, 2023-03-28 Stanley Kubrick was up to something But neither his fiercest admirers nor his harshest critics ever suspected what it was His movies were the means So what was the end In this experimental analysis of the work of Stanley Kubrick Jasun Horsley unpicks the cult of Kubrick taking a unique approach as he delves into the deeper and often darker reasons as to why the director has achieved such admiration over the years The Kubrickon maps an unholy merger of computer and behavioral sciences that has shaped not just politics but all of modern society over the past decade e g Cambridge Analytica It explores Stanley Kubrick s intensive secret insider involvement in the building of an architecture of algorithm directed technology that has steadily encroached into our inner realms cementing a symbiotic relationship between human consciousness and technology with culture as the binding medium of an attention economy Throughout The Kubrickon Horsley uses Kubrick s critically acclaimed films such as Eyes Wide Shut and 2001 Space Odyssey to provide a fascinating and revelatory overview of the cultural obsession with Stanley Kubrick as well as on a wider scale providing illuminating criticisms of society s consumption of culture and media For those who dislike Kubrick movies The Kubrickon will finally absolve you of all uncertainty and guilt For those who adore Kubrick movies The Kubrickon will challenge you to the core and may just set you free For those who are indifferent to Kubrick movies The Kubrickon will reward you by making you care about and nurture your indifference International Index to Film Periodicals, 1999 Technofeminist Storiographies Kristine L.
