Department of Defence
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

SOUTH AFRICAN ARMY

BACKGROUND

THE MILITARY SKILLS DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM (MSDS)

The SA Army, through its Military Skills Development System (MSDS), is offering young South African citizens an opportunity to serve in uniform over a two-year period. The Military Skills Development System is a two-year voluntary service system with the long term goal of enhancing the SA National Defence Force's deployment capability.

MSDS Candidates will be appointed in a specific corps career and will be called up to a Training Unit, where members will complete their Basic Military Training, Corps Functional Training, in the first year and be utilized and deployed in the second year of the MSDS.

Requirements:

- Be a SA Citizen
- MSDS Applicants must be between the ages of 18-22 years
- MSDS Graduates and/or other Tertiary Qualification up to the age of 25 years
- Successfully completed Grade 12 (preferable with exemption)
- Leadership potential
- Not be area bound
- Have no record of criminal offence or pending cases
- Preferably Single
- Comply with medical fitness requirements for appointment in the SANDF
- Be prepared to serve in uniform, undergo Basic Military and Functional Training

N.B. During the selections, the applicants will be subject to Psychometric Test; Medical Evaluation; Vetting on criminal record and Verification of qualifications.

Training:

The SA Army's mandate focuses on the provisioning of combat ready forces and plays a leading role in landward operations. Training will be decentralized to operational units where members will be appointed to undergo Basic Military Training, Corps training and deployment.

MSDS applicants must be between the ages of 18 to 22 to be considered. Applicants who are in possession of a post Grade 12 qualification (Degree, Diploma or N6) must be between the ages of 18 to 25 may also be considered.

Successful applicants will be required to serve in uniform and undergo Military Training. Incomplete forms will not be considered. Only applicants who have passed Grade 12 may apply and must not be older than the age as stipulated above on the date of reporting for training. Certified copies of ID document, Grade 12 certificate or Post grade 12 qualifications and CV must accompany this application form to SA Army Recruitment, Private Bag X 981, Pretoria 0001.

Military Skill Development Programme 2015 2016:

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heinecken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country's new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa's changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world Military Review ,2017 Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2016-05 Disaster, Diversity and Emergency Preparation L.I. Magnussen, 2019-11-06 One of NATO's objectives is a better understanding of the human and social aspects of security related issues This book presents the proceedings of the NATO Science for Peace and Security Advanced Research Workshop ARW Leadership Development Programme on Gender and Diversity Peace Risk and Emergency Preparedness and Collaboration held in T nsberg Norway on 11 12 December 2018 one of the aims of which was to strengthen organizational leadership The workshop firmly established the collaboration between Japan and other NATO countries with regard to Women Peace and Security WPS The workshop gave the participating leaders and researchers an opportunity to meet and debate to learn and to build networks of leaders for change This book consists of fourteen chapters including a summarizing introductory chapter It explores topics related to the way in which continued progress and change in institutional behaviors require an approach focused on altering perspectives and enhancing the skill sets of leaders Each chapter stands alone but is ordered within the framework of the Societal Programme Model SPM described in Chapter 1 The book will be of interest to all those involved in building leadership and changing institutional behavior The Military Balance 2022 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2022-02-14 Published each year since 1959 The Military Balance is an indispensable reference to the capabilities of armed forces across the globe It is used by academia the media armed forces the private sector and government It is an open source assessment of the military forces and equipment inventories of 171 countries with accompanying defence economics and procurement data Alongside detailed country data The Military Balance assesses important defence issues by region as well as key global trends such as in defence technology and equipment modernisation This analysis is accompanied by full colour graphics including maps and illustrations With extensive explanatory notes and reference information The Military Balance is as straightforward to use as it is extensive The 2022 edition is accompanied by a fullcolour wall chart illustrating security dynamics in the Arctic A National Trauma Care System National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Health and Medicine Division,Board on the Health of Select Populations,Board on Health Sciences Policy,Committee on Military Trauma Care's Learning Health System and Its Translation to the Civilian Sector,2016-10-12 Advances in trauma care have accelerated over the past decade spurred by the significant burden of injury from the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq Between 2005 and 2013 the case fatality rate for United States service members injured in Afghanistan decreased by nearly 50 percent despite an increase in the severity of injury among U S troops during the same period of time But as the war in Afghanistan ends knowledge and advances in trauma care developed by the Department of Defense DoD over the past decade from experiences in Afghanistan and Iraq may be lost This would have implications for the quality of trauma care both within the DoD and in the civilian setting where adoption of military advances in trauma care has become increasingly common and necessary to improve the response to multiple civilian casualty events Intentional steps to codify and harvest the lessons learned within the military s trauma system are needed to ensure a ready military medical force for future combat and to prevent death from survivable injuries in both military and civilian systems This will require partnership across military and civilian sectors and a sustained commitment from trauma system leaders at all levels to assure that the necessary knowledge and tools are not lost A National Trauma Care System defines the components of a learning health system necessary to enable continued improvement in trauma care in both the civilian and the military sectors This report provides recommendations to ensure that lessons learned over the past decade from the military s experiences in Afghanistan and Iraq are sustained and built upon for future combat operations and translated into the U S civilian system Managing Diversity in Organizations María Triana,2017-03-31 This book equips students with a thorough understanding of the advantages and challenges presented by workplace diversity suggesting techniques to manage diversity effectively and maximize its benefits Readers will learn to work with diverse groups to create a productive organization in which everyone feels included The author offers a comprehensive survey of demographic groups and an analysis of their history allowing students to develop a deep understanding of the dimensions of diversity From this foundation students are taught to manage diversity effectively on the basis of race sex LGBTQIA religion age ability national origin and intersectionality in organizations and to understand the issues various groups face including discrimination Opening with current case studies and discussion questions to enhance comprehension the chapters provide practical insight into subconscious implicit bias team diversity and diversity management in the United States and abroad Global View examples further highlight how diversity management unfolds around the world Offering a fresh look at workplace diversity this book will serve students of diversity human resource management and organizational studies A companion website featuring an instructor s manual PowerPoint slides and test banks provides additional support for students and instructors Career Counseling David Capuzzi,Mark Stauffer,Mark D. Stauffer,2018-09-03 Career Counseling 3rd edition provides a comprehensive holistic overview of the foundations of career counseling information on the most effective skills and techniques and contextual perspectives on career and lifestyle planning all by nationally and internationally recognized experts Updated chapters introduce important material not often addressed in introductory texts such as rehabilitation addictive behaviors counseling couples and families and working with ethnic and gender sexual minority clients Included throughout the text are case studies informational sidebars and experiential activities that enhance the reading and encourage additional contemplation of chapter content Readers can also turn to the book s companion website for chapter test questions PowerPoints and additional resources Fashion Industry

Riccardo Beltramo,Annalisa Romani,Paolo Cantore,2020-02-05 Fashion is a lot more than providing an answer to primary needs It is a way of communication of distinction of proclaiming a unique taste and expressing the belonging to a group Sometimes to an exclusive group Currently the fashion industry is moving towards hyperspace to a multidimensional world that is springing from the integration of smart textiles and wearable technologies It is far beyond aesthetics New properties of smart textiles let designers experiment with astonishing forms and expressions There are also surprising contrasts and challenges a new life for natural fibers sustainable fabrics and dyeing techniques rediscovered by eco fashion and artificial apparel made of wearable electronic components How is this revolution affecting the strategies of the fashion industry

2016 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance United States. Congress. Senate. Office of Management and Budget. Executive Office of the President,2016 Identifies and describes specific government assistance opportunities such as loans grants counseling and procurement contracts available under many agencies and programs OECD Economic Surveys: Israel 2023 OECD,2023-04-03 The Israeli economy has rebounded strongly from the COVID 19 pandemic and has proven resilient to the repercussions of Russia s war of aggression against Ukraine Inflation has risen above the central bank s target range amid strong demand and a tight labour market Nigeria's Fourth Republic, 1999-2021 Michael Nwankpa,2022-11-18 This book reflects on Nigeria s fourth republic the country s longest democratic period since it gained independence from Great Britain It argues that although constitutional or political democracy has lasted for over two decades in Nigeria and seen three successful democratic changes of power Nigeria s democracy remains largely militarised During Nigeria s fourth republic political and socio economic affairs have been increasingly dominated by a pervasive military presence and ideology which has seen a redistribution of resources and government funds away from social programmes into an increase in security budgets weapons proliferation and internal military interventions and occupations This institutionalisation of violence has turned the country into a national security state where the rule of force and violence rather than dialogue and compassion reflect everyday reality Whilst acknowledging the history of militarisation during colonial and military rule this book makes a compelling argument for considering the distinct character of the Nigerian nation state's path to militarisation over the last 20 years of experimentation with democracy This book's fresh insights into the fourth republic's path to militarisation will be of interest to researchers of African politics security and development

The Political Economy of Bank Regulation in Developing Countries: Risk and Reputation Emily Jones, 2020-03-12 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations International banking standards are intended for the regulation of large complex risk taking international banks with trillions of dollars in assets and operations across the globe Yet they are being implemented in countries with nascent financial markets and small banks that have yet to venture into international markets Why is this The Political Economy of Bank Regulation in Developing Countries Risk and Reputation explores the politics of banking regulation in eleven countries across Africa Asia and Latin America It shows how financial globalization generates strong reputational and competitive incentives for developing countries to converge on international standards Politicians regulators and large banks in developing countries implement international standards to attract international investment bolster their professional standing and further integrate their countries into global finance Convergence is not inevitable or uniform implementation is often contested and regulators adapt international standards to the local context This book contributes to our understanding of the ways in which governments and firms in the core of global finance powerfully shape regulatory decisions in the periphery and the ways that governments and firms from peripheral developing countries manoeuvre within the constraints and opportunities created by financial globalization

The Routledge Handbook of Civil-Military Relations Florina Cristiana Matei, Carolyn Halladay, Thomas C. Bruneau, 2021-11-01 This second edition of The Routledge Handbook of Civil Military Relations offers a wide ranging internationally focused overview of the field of civil military relations The armed forces are central actors in most societies and are involved in many different roles Amongst other activities they engage in peace operations support the police in fighting crime support civilian authorities in dealing with natural disasters and fight against terrorists and in internal conflicts The existing literature on this subject is limited in its discussion of warfighting and thus does not do justice to the variety of roles This second edition not only fills this important lacuna but offers an up to date comparative analysis and provides a conceptual framework to analyze how strategies can realistically be implemented Amalgamating ideas from key thinkers in the field the book is organized into three main thematic parts Part I Civil Military Relations in Non Democratic States and Illiberal Democracies Part II Civil Military Relations in New Democracies Part III Civil Military Relations in Established Democracies This handbook will be essential reading for students and practitioners in the fields of civil military relations defense studies war and conflict studies international security and IR in general

The Top Books of the Year Military Skill Development Programme 2015 2016 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Military Skill Development Programme 2015 2016 : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
