Re: Outstanding Payment for Services Rendered

Dear Client:

I am contacting you demanding payment for $600. I am attempting to resolve this out of court, but if we cannot come to an agreement, I intend to sue.

Here is a statement of my case that I intend to submit to the court:

I am the business owner of Printing Shop, Inc. and offer printing services for clients looking to print posters. Client came to Printing Shop, Inc. on July 1, 2022, and requested we print several posters of various sizes. I sent Client an invoice for $600 and we printed the requested posters. It is now September and Client refuses to pay the invoice. I have tried to contact Client and sent several notices of outstanding payment but Client continues to reject paying $600.

I look forward to resolving this matter amicably and I am amenable to discussing mediation. You may contact me at printshop@gmail.com if you would like to discuss this matter further. Please send me a check payable to my name to the address listed above.

If I do not hear from you by September 14, 2022, you leave me no alternative but to file a lawsuit against you. In the event of a lawsuit, I intend to seek redress to the fullest extent permitted by law including, but not limited to, additional damages, legal services costs, court costs, and accrued interest.

Sincerely,

Printing Shop, Inc.
