King,2016-03-21 If The End of Alchemy gets the attention it deserves it might just save the world Michael Lewis Bloomberg View Something is wrong with our banking system We all sense that but Mervyn King knows it firsthand his ten years at the helm of the Bank of England including at the height of the financial crisis revealed profound truths about the mechanisms of our capitalist society In The End of Alchemy he offers us an essential work about the history and future of money and banking the keys to modern finance The Industrial Revolution built the foundation of our modern capitalist age Yet the flowering of technological innovations during that dynamic period relied on the widespread adoption of two much older ideas the creation of paper money and the invention of banks that issued credit We take these systems for granted today yet at their core both ideas were revolutionary and almost magical Common paper became as precious as gold and risky long term loans were transformed into safe short term bank deposits As King argues this is financial alchemy the creation of extraordinary financial powers that defy reality and common sense Faith in these powers has led to huge benefits the liquidity they create has fueled economic growth for two centuries now However they have also produced an unending string of economic disasters from hyperinflations to banking collapses to the recent global recession and current stagnation How do we reconcile the potent strengths of these ideas with their inherent weaknesses King draws on his unique experience to present fresh interpretations of these economic forces and to point the way forward for the global economy His bold solutions cut through current overstuffed and needlessly complex legislation to provide a clear path to durable prosperity and the end of overreliance on the alchemy of our financial ancestors      Doris Lessing and the Forming of History Kevin

Brazil,2016-09-20 The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing s writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing s work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women s writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing s writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history
