First Level Heading

Unless required in the instructions, the headers should be used only in five-or-more-page papers. The introduction of an essay should end with a strong, debatable thesis statement and approximately take 10% of the required word count. Please note that student's information, title, headers, and Works Cited page are not counted towards the required word count.

The first sentence of a paragraph is always a topic sentence. It states the main idea or argument presented in the paragraph. Topic sentence should be followed by supporting information from the reliable and up-to-date sources. Avoid plagiarism using direct and indirect citations followed by an in-text citation mentioning an author's surname and a page number (Pears and Graham 1). In case a web publication contains no pagination, use an author's surname or a name of a source followed by "no page" shortening (Research Guides n.p.). Please note that a long name of a source is to be shortened in the in-text citation. Do not leave a paragraph with a citation at the end. Every paragraph should end with a transition sentence serving as a bridge between two adjacent paragraphs.

Second Level Heading

Use second level heading to specify the subpoints contributing to the topic of the previous header. No paragraph indentation is required in such a case. Please note that one paragraph
