Saving Point Reyes Gerald Felix Warburg, 2023-08-25 The Point Reyes National Seashore PRNS is not only a stunning piece of land the first large national park created from all private lands and the first large park adjacent a major metropolitan center but the fight to save this fragile ecosystem in the 1960s was a key turning point in the environmental movement and helped transform the political landscape of California and the nation Saving Point Reyes is an environmental policy history that draws on archival materials oral histories and new interviews with veteran federal policymakers to understand how legislative bargaining and grassroots politics succeeded in achieving this victory for environmental protection Gerald Warburg offers the first political history focused on the battles to preserve the unique series of fragile ecosystems that surround San Francisco and the definitive study of exactly how Point Reyes was saved Most accounts of this story only focus on the 1962 bill that created the PRNS on 53 000 acres of private lands just north of San Francisco But that was just the first act in the saga The passing of the bill only established the park in theory and the government only controlled 123 acres at Point Reyes In the months following the signing ceremony all three of the House Senate and White House champions of the Point Reyes legislation died leaving the PRNS without the leadership necessary to secure the funding to purchase the rest of the land What followed was an epic public policy battle to save Point Reyes Local grassroots lobbying organizations arose to advance the cause of PRNS and other environmental campaigns and their victory in 1970 laid the foundation for future environmental activism With this new funding the PRNS expanded to over 71 000 acres which then grew to 87 000 acres in 1972 with the creation of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area The legislative bargaining and grassroots politics in the fight to preserve Point Reyes helped create a tipping point profoundly altering the national environmental movement Warburg's deeply researched case study of NGO activism and congressional action is developed through a compelling narrative that offers specific lessons learned and hope for future environmental challenges from climate policy to public lands preservation

Lienau, 2007-09 The World Demographic Institute or WDI based in Washington DC is devoted to global conservationist issues ranging from the balanced preservation of natural resources to population control In opposition are many religious and conservative individuals and organizations at least one of which is prepared to resort to violence and chicanery to press its issues and aims As a result the WDI has its open or public side as well as a clandestine force staffed by professional undercover agents from around the world The secret side of the WDI swings into action when first one then a second of its agents is detected and eliminated Since the Institute does not know who or what they are fighting they turn to an unlikely candidate to identify and track down their adversary He is ex Army Ranger Francis Xavier McNulty who has become an activist priest McNulty ferrets out a mole in the WDI headquarters then moves to Europe where he is joined by other operatives to track down the assassin as well as accomplish a second mission of a political nature One result is involvement with cardinals within the Curia The assignment is nearly foiled when the WDI cell is uncovered and infiltrated by an element of the target opposing force Rottenkid Brigit Binns,2024-03-05 A memoir sauteed in Hollywood stories world travel and always the need to belong Prolific cookbook author Brigit Binns coming of age memoir co starring her alcoholic actor father Edward Binns and glamorous but viciously smart narcissistic mother reveals how simultaneous privilege and profound neglect lead Brigit to seek comfort in the kitchen eventually allowing her to find some sense of self worth In the old Hollywood of her childhood Brigit seems to live in an elite world But when her parents eventually divorce her father flees and her mother sends her off to boarding school so she can more easily conduct her decades long romance with a married California governor Brigit racks up seven schools and a host of bad decisions before the age of 16 Marriage to an Englishman takes her across the pond and to professional cooking school But when that life comes crashing down she returns heartbroken and alone to Los Angeles eighteen years after vowing never to return Here she thrives cold pitching herself to top chefs as co author for their cookbooks Peppered with humor and seasoned with optimism Brigit s story is an entertaining tribute to female resilience Gorilla Dreams Georgianne Nienaber,2006 This is a biographical interpretation of the primatologist s life that honors the African belief that the dead live on in spiritual form Getting Off at Elysian Fields John Pope,2015-10-19 No city in America knows how to mark death with more funerary panache than New Orleans The pageants commemorating departed citizens are often in themselves works of performance art A grand obituary remains key to this Stygian passage And no one writes them like New Orleanian John Pope Collected here are not just simple mindless recitations of schools and workplaces marriages and mourners bereft These pieces in Getting Off at Elysian Fields Obituaries from the New Orleans Times Picayune are full blooded life stories with accounts of great achievements dubious dabbings unavoidable foibles relationships gone sour and happenstances that turn out to be life changing To be sure there are stories about Carnival monarchs great philanthropists and a few politicians But because New Orleans embraces eccentric behavior there are stories of people who colored way outside the lines For instance there was the doctor who used his plasma to make his flowers grow and the philanthropist who took money she had put aside for a fur coat to underwrite the lawsuit that desegregated Tulane University A letter carrier everyone loved turned out to have been a spy during World War II and a fledgling lawyer changed his lifelong thoughts about race when he saw blind people going into a Christmas party through separate doors one for white people and another for African Americans Then there was the punctilious judge who got down on his hands and knees to edge his lawn with scissors Because New
