South African Urban Change Three Decades After Apartheid Anthony Lemon, Ronnie Donaldson, Gustav Visser, 2021-06-10
This book provides an analysis of South African urban change over the past three decades. It draws on a seminal text Homes Apart and revisits conclusions drawn in that collection that marked the final phases of urban apartheid. It highlights changes in demography, social as well as economic structure, and their differential spatial expression across a range of urban sites in South Africa. The evidence presented in this book points to a very complex set of narratives in urban South Africa and one that cannot be reduced to a singular statement, so the conclusions of the various investigations are in many ways open. As urban apartheid represented one clear outcome, its post-apartheid urban legacies vary greatly from city to city. As such, this book is a great resource to students and academics focused on urban change in South African cities since the demise of apartheid and scholars of urban policy making in South Africa and Southern urbanists generally. Bekker, Sylvia Croese, 2021-02-26 Case studies of metropolitan cities in nine African countries from Egypt in the north to three in West and Central Africa two in East Africa and three in Southern Africa make up the empirical foundation of this publication The interrelated themes addressed in these chapters the national influence on urban development the popular dynamics that shape urban development and the global currents on urban development make up its framework All authors and editors are African as is the publisher The only exception is Gran Therborn whose recent book Cities of Power served as motivation for this volume Accordingly the issue common to all case studies is the often conflictual powers that are exercised by national global and popular forces in the development of these African cities Rather than locating the case studies in an exclusively African historical context the focus is on the trajectories of the postcolonial city with the important exception of Addis Ababa with a non colonial history that has granted it a special place in African consciousness These trajectories enable comparisons with those of postcolonial cities on other continents This in turn highlights the fact that Africa today the least urbanised continent on an increasingly urbanised globe is in the thick of processes of large scale urban transformation illustrated in diverse ways by the case studies that make up the foundation of this publication Short Description
