represented are Averil Cameron and Elizabeth A Clark Contemplating Historical Consciousness Anna Clark, Carla L. Peck, 2018-12-17 The last several decades have witnessed an explosion of new empirical research into representations of the past and the conditions of their production prompting claims that we have entered a new era in which the past has become more present than ever before Contemplating Historical Consciousness brings together leading historians ethnographers and other scholars who give illuminating reflections on the aims methods and conceptualization of their own research as well as the successes and failures they have encountered This rich collective account provides valuable perspectives for current scholars while charting new avenues for future research Handbook of Social and Emotional Learning Joseph A. Durlak, Celene E. Domitrovich, Roger P. Weissberg, Thomas P. Gullotta, 2016-10-26 The burgeoning multidisciplinary field of social and emotional learning SEL now has a comprehensive and definitive handbook covering all aspects of research practice and policy The prominent editors and contributors describe state of the art intervention and prevention programs designed to build students skills for managing emotions showing concern for others making responsible decisions and forming positive relationships Conceptual and scientific underpinnings of SEL are explored and its relationship to children s and adolescents academic success and mental health examined Issues in implementing and assessing SEL programs in diverse educational settings are analyzed in depth including the roles of school and district level leadership teacher training and school family partnerships More Than Things Paul Louis Metzger, 2023-08-08 In a world dominated by things we must work hard to account for one another s personhood Drawing a diverse set of thought leaders Paul Louis Metzger helps us navigate a pluralistic world through a personalist moral framework addressing issues such as abortion genetic engineering immigration drone warfare and more The Life of I Anne Manne, 2015-08-03 Far from being the work of a madman Anders Breivik's murderous rampage in Norway was the action of an extreme narcissist As the dead lay around him he held up a finger asking for a Band Aid Written with the pace of a psychological thriller The Life of I is a compelling account of the rise of narcissism in individuals and society Manne examines the Lance Armstrong doping scandal and the alarming rise of sexual assaults in sport and the military as well as the vengeful killings of Elliot Rodger in California She looks at narcissism in the pursuit of fame and our obsession with making it She goes beyond the usual suspects of social media and celebrity culture to the deeper root of the issue how a new narcissistic character type is being fuelled by a cult of the self and the pursuit of wealth in a hypercompetitive consumer society The Life of I also offers insights from the latest work in psychology looking at how narcissism develops But Manne also shows that there is an alternative how to transcend narcissism to be fully alive to the presence of others how to create a world where love and care are no longer turned inward

Mother without their children Charlotte Beyer,2019-01-01 Conceiving of and representing mothers without their children seems so paradoxical as to be almost impossible How can we define a mother in the absence of her child This compelling volume explores these and other questions from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives examining experiences representations creative manifestations and embodiments of mothers without their children In her 1997 book entitled Mother Without Child Contemporary Fiction and the Crisis of Motherhood the critic Elaine Tuttle Hansen urged for critical and feminist engagement with what she described as the borders of motherhood and the women who really live there neither fully inside nor fully outside some recognizable family unit and often exiles from their children This book extends and expands this important enquiry looking at maternal experience and mothering on the borders of motherhood in different historical and cultural contexts thereby opening up the way in which we imagine and represent mothers without their children to reassessment and revision and encouraging further dialogue about what it might mean to mother on the borders of motherhood Mothers and Daughters Dannabang Kuwabong, 2017-12-01 Mothers and Daughters is a compelling anthology that explores the multifaceted connections between mothers and daughters Chapters explore new fields of inquiry examining discourses about mothers and daughters through academic essays narrative and creative work By examining the experiences of mothers and daughters from within an interdisciplinary framework which includes cultural biological socio political relational and historical perspectives the text surveys multiple approaches to understanding the mother daughter dynamic Therefore the uniqueness and strength of this collection comes from blending not just work from across academic disciplines but also the forms in which this work is presented academic inquiry and critique as well as creative and narrative explorations The length is 296 pages Ageing, Gender and Sexuality Sue Westwood, 2016-03-10 Ageing Gender and Sexuality focuses on the experiences of older lesbian gay and bisexual LGB individuals in order to analyse how ageing gender and sexuality intersect to produce particular inequalities relating to resources recognition and representation in later life The book adopts a feminist socio legal perspective to propose that these inequalities are informed by and play out in relation to temporal spatial and regulatory contexts Discussing topics such as ageing sexual subjectivities ageing kinship formations classed trajectories and anticipated care futures this book provides a new perspective on older individuals in same sex relationships including those who choose not to label their sexualities Drawing upon recent empirical data the book offers new theoretical approaches for understanding the intersectionality of ageing gender and sexuality as well as analysing the social policy implications of these findings With an emphasis on the accounts of individuals who have experienced the dramatically changing socio legal landscape for LGB people first hand this book is essential reading for students scholars and policymakers working in the areas of gender and sexuality studies ageing studies and gerontology gender sexuality and law equality and human rights sociology socio legal studies and social policy Ageing Gender and Sexuality won the Socio Legal Studies Association SLSA Hart Prize for Early Career Academics for 2017 9.78E+12 Alain Klarsfeld, Lize A.E. care for creation is a central part of our discipleship as followers of Jesus Christ However language and imagery of the earth is often absent in our worship services This book helps reconnect our commitment to creation care with our life of discipleship The process includes helping congregational members name ways that they are involved in caring for creationand encouraging them to see ways that these practices are related to Christian faith and in doing so nurturing the life of our communities while fostering our identity as those who care for the earth Central to the process of reconnecting holy discipleship with earth stewardship is the development and rediscovery of biblical imagery and language that will support our care of creation and shape our prayers As our actions are more closely connected to the language of our prayers praying and acting will inform and enrich each other This book also includes custom liturgies that highlight earth care prayerfully prepared for the major festivals of the church year Radical Realism, Autofictional Narratives and the Reinvention of the Novel Fiona J. Doloughan, 2023-02-14 This monograph treats modes of fictionality in contemporary auto biography memoir and autofiction Adopting a case study approach it demonstrates the extent to which contexts of production and reception are important in framing generic expectations with respect to the representation of lived experience and in helping to determine the status of the narrator as fictional persona or implied author The Way We Never Were Stephanie Coontz, 2016-03-29 The definitive edition of the classic myth shattering history of the American family Leave It to Beaver was not a documentary a man's home has never been his castle the male breadwinner marriage is the least traditional family in history and rape and sexual assault were far higher in the 1970s than they are today In The Way We Never Were acclaimed historian Stephanie Coontz examines two centuries of the American family sweeping away misconceptions about the past that cloud current debates about domestic life The 1950s do not present a workable model of how to conduct our personal lives today Coontz argues and neither does any other era from our cultural past This revised edition includes a new introduction and epilogue exploring how the clash between growing gender equality and rising economic inequality is reshaping family life marriage and male female relationships in our modern era More relevant than ever The Way We Never Were is a potent corrective to dangerous nostalgia for an American tradition that never really existed The Ultimate Balancing Act Iselin Løvslett Danbolt,
