Global Foodscapes Alistair Fraser, 2016-07-22 What we eat as well as how it is produced processed moved sold and used by our bodies seems to matter like never before Global Foodscapes takes on this topicality and asks readers to think about how we are all involved in the making of an odd and in many ways troubling and contested food economy It explores how food is conceived traded grown reared processed sold and consumed investigates what goes wrong along the way and assesses what diverse people around the world are doing to fix these faults The text uses a carefully crafted framework that explores the interaction of five forms of oppression and five means of resistance as they are worked out over five stages in the food economy It draws on case studies from around the world that illuminate key issues about food in today s world examines how oppression affects diverse people caught up in the food economy and highlights how individuals groups and institutions such as governments but also firms are trying to improve how we interact with the food system Global

Foodscapes is a highly accessible and useful text for undergraduate students interested in the global food economy The global range of case studies examples and reference points as well as its original framework allows the text to speak to diverse audiences and generate debate about whether anything and if so what needs to be done about the food system we depend upon so heavily Additional materials such as suggested readings and discussion points help students consider the issues at hand and conduct initial and more detailed research on today s food economy Living with Dignity Elna

Mouton, Gertrude Kapuma, Len Hansen, Thomas Togom, 2015-01-01 By addressing gender equality as a fundamental expression of human dignity and justice on our continent this collage of essays by 14 women and 6 men is meant to serve as a concrete alternative to aspects of gender inequality Its format is particularly devised for use in the classroom and for critical constructive group engagement It is our sincere prayer that it will also be used in imaginative ways by clergy and in congregations as a necessary part of adult learning programmes Resilient Cities in the Global South Lakshmi Priya

Rajendran, NezHapi-Dellé Odeleye, Aysegul Can, 2025-07-22 Post pandemic cities face new challenges in adapting to global changes while also addressing the needs practices and capabilities of diverse populations Resilience as a key factor enables cities to adapt and transform in response to these challenges Development driven by resilience is crucial for urban society s ability to adapt and evolve on multiple levels However in developed countries increasingly standardised planning and development practices often hinder citizen engagement and participation which are essential for building resilient cities This book adopts an interdisciplinary approach to examine how diverse social and spatial behaviours within informal urban environments particularly in developing countries can provide fresh insights for robust urban planning and development The book is structured in three parts 1 North South Relations this part explores the global discourse on informality highlighting its presence in both the Global North and South 2 Grassroots this part focusses on grassroots initiatives and community driven resilience within urban informality and 3 Institutional Strategies and Professional Alliances the final part delves into the role of institutions and professional collaborations in shaping urban informality By presenting a range of perspectives and experiences this book contributes to a unique Southern framework that positions informality as a dialogue for enabling resilience It will appeal to a multidisciplinary audience including professionals from fields such as sociology history environmental psychology cultural studies human geography urban design and planning architecture and anthropology
