Joseph A Slave Craft:

The Price of Freedom T. Stephen Whitman, 2014-07-15 A stereotypical image of manumission is that of a benign plantation owner freeing his slaves on his deathbed But as Stephen Whitman demonstrates the truth was far more complex especially in border states where manumission was much more common Whitman analyzes the economic and social history of Baltimore to show how the vigorous growth of the city required the exploitation of rural slaves To prevent them from escaping and to spur higher production owners entered into arrangements with their slaves promising eventual freedom in return for many years hard work The Price of Freedom reveals how blacks played a critical role in freeing themselves from slavery Yet it was an imperfect victory Once Baltimore's economic growth began to slow freed blacks were virtually excluded from craft apprenticeships and European immigrants supplanted them as a trained labor force The Craft of a Good Scribe Steve Vinson, 2017-11-06 In The Craft of a Good Scribe Steve Vinson offers a comprehensive study of the Demotic Egyptian First Tale of Setne Khaemwas Third Century BCE the first to appear since 1900 First Setne is the most important extant Demotic literary text and among the most important fictional compositions from any period of ancient Egypt The tale which is by turns lurid tragic and ultimately comic deals with Setne's theft of a magic book written by the god Thoth himself and subsequently Setne's punishment through a hallucinatory encounter with the ghostly femme fatale Tabubue Vinson provides a new textual edition and commentary and explores the tale's cultural background its modern reception and approaches to its interpretation as a work of literature Living to Tell the Horrid Tales: True Life Stories of Former Slaves, Historical Documents & Novels Mark Twain, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Aphra Behn, Thomas Clarkson, Daniel Drayton, Louis Hughes, Lydia Maria Child, James Weldon Johnson, Austin Steward, Ida B.
