Female Entrepreneurs John Smythe, Ruth Saunders, 2020-04-03. The comparative numbers between male and female led start-ups are stark: Ninety one per cent of venture capital money continues to fund businesses founded solely by men, with only one per cent of venture capital money invested in businesses founded solely by women. Yet being a female entrepreneur is not the preserve of Wonder Woman. It's for every woman who wants to make it happen. Female Entrepreneurs: The Secrets of Their Success encourages every woman who has dreamt of being an entrepreneur but hasn't yet taken the leap to take the first steps towards realising her dreams, as well as encouraging every woman who has not yet thought about running her own business to consider it. Additionally, it encourages governments and the corporate world to recognise and embrace the huge value that female entrepreneurs bring to society and the economy. John Smythe and Ruth Saunders reveal the secrets of the success of fifty-two female entrepreneurs. They outline wisdom and insights to inspire budding entrepreneurs to take the leap and offer practical advice on what to think about when setting your business up for success, as well as when considering whether to scale. They also provide top tips on how to play to women's inherent strengths and avoid the weaknesses women face, as well as how to stay sane and enjoy the journey. This practical, unique guide provides the encouragement, support and motivation any aspiring female entrepreneur could need to make those first steps towards the realisation of their ambitions. John Smythe and Ruth Saunders are both entrepreneurs themselves and regularly advise start-ups on how to launch and scale up for growth. Army-Navy-Air Force Register and Defense Times, 1910

The Right Fit Sinead Moriarty, 2006-06-27. Emma, the irrepressible protagonist from The Baby Trail, is back for a whirlwind trip through the upside-down world of international adoption. After trying every fertility treatment in the book, as well as following a slew of advice from her friends, family and women's magazines, she and her husband have given up on conceiving naturally. They're now trying international adoption, which should in theory be more pleasant than the fertility shots and postcoital headstands of their baby-making days. However, with the rigorous screening process, including a Russian class where they learn about their potential baby's culture alongside competitive adoptive parents-to-be and her critical case managers, Emma finds herself once again in over her head.
