

Softball Rules Simplified

HISTORY

Softball was created by George Hancock in Chicago in 1887. The game originated as an indoor variation of baseball and was eventually converted to an outdoor game. The popularity of softball has grown considerably, both at the recreational and competitive levels. In fact, not only is women's fast pitch softball a popular high school and college sport, it was recognized as an Olympic sport in 1996.

OBJECT OF THE GAME

To score more runs than the opposing team. The team with the most runs at the end of the game wins.

EQUIPMENT

Equipment differs for offensive and defensive positions.

- On offense, batters have a wooden or aluminum bat, batting gloves for grip, and batting helmets for protection.
 - On defense, fielders use a leather glove. The catcher has special protective equipment, including a face mask, chest protector, and shin/leg guards.
- All players wear shoes with cleats. The uniform consists of a jersey; pants, shorts, or skirt; and a baseball cap, visor, or headband.

MAJOR DIFFERENCES FROM BASEBALL

Fast pitch softball is similar to baseball; however, there are notable differences.

- For example, the pitch is delivered underhand, the ball is larger, the field is smaller, and base runners cannot leave a base until the pitcher releases the pitch.

THE GAME

- 1) There are 9 players on a softball team.
- 2) The playing field is divided into the infield and outfield
- 3) The lines between the bases are 60' apart and when joined they form a "diamond", inside the baseline is known as the infield
- 4) Outside the baseline but inside the playing field is called the outfield.

Any ball going outside the 1st or 3rd base line is a foul ball (runners can not advance and the batter gets another try unless the ball was caught in the air, which translates to an out)

An official game is 7 innings (a inning is when both teams have had their turn to bat)

a) The visiting team bats in the first half of each inning, called the "top of the inning;" the home team bats in the second half of each inning, called the "bottom of the inning."

There is no set time that an inning lasts; each half of the inning continues until the defense accumulates three outs. If the game is tied after the last inning, the game goes into "extra innings," and continues until one team holds a lead at the end of an inning.
