Windows James B. Harrison Jr., 2018-08-09 This book features a concept for walking the road of life a background into the origin of life a perspective on the function of energy and an insight into the energy of life John is just a character through which to convey the concept of how to control ones existences while walking the road of life He represents the six billion carbon life forms on the third rock in this small galaxy that is the envelope of living materials of atoms and matter These are presented in the form of Homo sapiens the dominant species among the billions of species that reside on this rock This provides an explanation on the special energy that fuels the brain and provides it life giving abilities It is an insight into the scientific knowledge and intelligence that is needed to understand the existence of life as it started and progressed This offers some alternatives to the age old beliefs that have dominated the social circles of existing and it gives a method to control the hectic life into which the species has evolved John lives in a world that just keeps increasing in the speed of existence necessary to survive He is an example of the ability to change the route that has existed so long that it probably has become the norm instead of the exception John is an example of the Homo sapien from the time of reproduction until the road of life is terminated and its lifes energy is transferred to be recycled for another generation

half century of work on James by the noted biographer critic In the letters of the novelist s last twenty years a new Henry James is revealed Edel s generous selection shows us as he says a looser less formal less distant personality a man writing with greater candor and with more emotional freedom who has at last opened himself up to the physical things of life The decade embracing the turn of the century is the most productive period of James s career Happily settled in an English country house and now dictating to a typist he is able to write The Ambassadors The Wings of the Dove and The Golden Bowl in three years The letters show clearly how his fiction turned from his world famous tales of international society to the life of passion in his last novels His new friends and correspondents include Conrad H G Wells Stephen Crane Edith Wharton and several young men to whom he writes curious half inhibited love letters Mrs Wharton with her chauffeured chariot of fire introduces him to the thrill of motoring and welcomes him into her cosmopolitan circle to him she embodies the affluence and driving energy of the America of the Gilded Age For the first time in over twenty years he revisits his homeland traveling not only in the East but through the South to Florida and west to California He is dismayed by the materialism he finds and the changed ways of life Back in England he plunges into several projects for the New York edition of his works he revises the early novels and writes his famous prefaces His relations with agents and publishers as well as family and friends are fully documented in the letters as are his trips to the Continent and visits with Edith Wharton in Paris His last years are darkened by a long siege of nervous ill health and by the death of his beloved brother William But he carries on moves back to London and continues to work Among the most eloquent of all his letters are those describing his anguished reaction to the Great War To show his allegiance to the Allied cause he becomes a British citizen six months before his death The volume concludes with his final and fading words dictated on his deathbed Proceedings Society for Psychical Research,1928

Proceedings of the Society for Psychical Research Society for Psychical Research (Great Britain),1928 List of members in v 1 19 21 24 Wonderful Passaic Bob Rosenthal,2000-08-28 Growing up is bewildering and exciting to every child This was particularly true for a child born during the Great Depression 1930 s and who also experienced the Home Front efforts of World War II Coupled with these great national events was the fact that this child lived in a multi ethnic melting pot city of Passaic New Jersey The true growing up adventures are told in a series of stories some with side splitting humor others highly poignant For example How learning the facts of life from the older guys on the street corner caused a major lifetime disaster how with his best friend he personally helped defeat Japan and Germany in WWII how he witnessed the three greatest aeronautical events of the 20th century how the handwriting rules in the Passaic schools caused a blunder in front of President John F Kennedy which helped Kennedy to decide to send a man to the moon how the structural design of the giant Saturn rocket booster was actually invented in a Passaic toilet bowl But more important the stories provide the secret of how the immigrant dominated Passaic uniquely prepared its children to succeed in America and how it still doing it today
