Factor Five Ernst Ulrich von Weizsäcker, Charlie Hargroves, Michael H. Smith, Cheryl Desha, Peter Stasinopoulos, 2009-12-01 When first published in 1997 Factor Four Doubling Wealth Halving Resource Use by renowned economic and engineering experts Ernst von Weizsäcker Amory Lovins and L. Hunter Lovins transformed how economists policy makers engineers entrepreneurs and business leaders thought about innovation and wealth creation Through examples from a wide range of industrial sectors the authors demonstrated how technical innovation could cut resource use in half while doubling wealth Now twelve years on with climate change at the top of the world agenda and the new economic giants of China and India needing ever more resources there is a unique historic opportunity to scale up resources

productivity and radically transform the global economy And Factor Five is the book set to change all of this Picking up where Factor Four left off this new book examines the past 15 years of innovation in industry technical innovation and policy It shows how and where factor four gains have been made and how we can achieve greater factor five or 80% improvements in resource and energy productivity and how to roll them out on a global scale to retool our economic system massively boost wealth for billions of people around the world and help solve the climate change crises Spanning dozens of countries including China and India and examining innumerable cases of innovation in design technology and policy the authors leave no engineering and economic stone unturned in their quest for excellence The book tackles sustainable development and climate change by providing in depth Factor 5 resource productivity studies of the following sectors Buildings Industry Agriculture Food and Hospitality and Transportation In its systematic approach to demonstrating how Factor 5 can be achieved the book also provides an overview of energy water nexus and energy materials nexus efficiency opportunities across these sectors Given that these sectors are responsible for virtually all energy usage and greenhouse gas emissions globally this book is designed to guide everyone from individual households businesses industry sector groups to national governments in their efforts to achieve the IPCC recommended target of 80 per cent reductions to greenhouse gas emissions It also looks at innovation in regulation to increase resource productivity pricing carbon trading eco taxation and permits and the role of international institutions and trade The authors also explain exciting new concepts such as bio mimicry and whole system design as hallmarks for a new generation of technologies The last part of the book explores transformative ideas such as a long term trajectory of gently rising energy and resource prices and new concepts of well being in a more equitable world Like its predecessor this book is simply the most important work on the future of innovation business economics and policy and is top drawer reading for leaders across all sectors including business and industry government engineering and design and teaching This book is full colour throughout Published with The Natural Edge Project Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1994 Popular Science ,1995-06 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better EPA-600/2 ,1979 Sound & Vision ,2007 Road and Track ,2004 Car and Driver ,2003-07 The Culture of the Copy Hillel Schwartz,2014-11-02 A novel attempt to make sense of our preoccupation with copies of all kinds from counterfeits to instant replay from parrots to photocopies The Culture of the Copy is a novel attempt to make sense of the Western fascination with replicas duplicates and twins In a work that is breathtaking in its synthetic and critical achievements Hillel Schwartz charts the repercussions of our entanglement with copies of all kinds whose presence alternately sustains and overwhelms us This updated edition takes notice of recent shifts in thought with regard to such issues as biological cloning conjoined twins copyright digital reproduction and multiple personality disorder At once abbreviated and refined it will be of interest to
