- A. Mass Media Mass media obscures real life's experiences and interferes with the characters' ability to think deeply about their own lives.
- B. Censorship By making widespread censorship a phenomenon that emerges from the culture itself—and not one that is simply imposed from the government—Bradbury is expressing a concern that the power of mass media can ultimately suppress free speech as thoroughly as any totalitarian regime, like Hitler's.

However, the novel makes the case that one who pursues engaging with difficult or uncomfortable thoughts can people achieve a real and meaningful relationship with the world and with each other. These real relationships lead to true happiness.
