

A close-up photograph of a computer keyboard. The keys are primarily blue with white lettering. A single key, located in the lower-middle section, is a vibrant red color and features the text 'DONNEES' on the top line and 'PERSONNELLES' on the bottom line in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. Surrounding this red key are several blue keys: to its left is a blue key with a white 'L' and a small '0' above it; below the 'L' key is a blue key with a white 'M'; to the right of the red key is a blue key with a white arrow pointing to the right; below the red key is a blue key with a white upward-pointing arrow and the word 'Shift' in white; and to the right of the 'Shift' key is a blue key with a white 'P'. The background shows other keys like 'O', 'P', and 'M' with some faint, illegible markings. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the keys and the contrast between the red key and the blue ones.
