

CUNEiform

Write Like a Sumerian!

Cuneiform is noted as the oldest form of writing. Cuneiforms were developed in Mesopotamia as a method of communication. Cuneiforms included a combination of pictographs, symbols representing entire words and phonograms (symbols representing a syllable or sound). Early Sumerian writing began as a pictographic system with simple pictures and symbols, which represented a whole object or idea. Sumerians developed pictures of objects and animals to represent the words. Symbols for numbers, names, and other words such as writing and working were represented with abstract symbols. This was a revolutionary development because it allowed a more sophisticated writing system. The evolution of the pictorial system of writing provided a more abstract idea, which represented sounds, instead of whole objects. The Cuneiform system of writing developed over a period of 300 years and eventually died. Although symbols by themselves, the Sumerians had developed a complete system of writing.

The Sumerians used a system of writing called cuneiform. The word "cuneiform" comes from the Latin word "cuneus," which means "wedge." The Sumerians used a system of writing called cuneiform.
