Inherit the Wind Jerome Lawrence, Robert Edwin Lee, 2000 Presents the script of the 1950s play loosely based on the events which took place in Dayton Tennessee during the Scopes Trial in July of 1925 which opened the debate over the teaching of creationism and evolution The Scopes Trial Randy Moore, Susan E. Brooks, 2022-12-16 The 1925 trial of John Scopes in tiny Dayton Tennessee remains a defining moment in American history This trial of the century a media event before the term was coined addressed issues that still affect our society today such as control of the school curriculum the ongoing tensions between science and faith in public schools and the ramifications of teaching evolution and human origins This book is the first encyclopedic treatment of the Scopes Trial The text draws on media reports family interviews and Scopes personal correspondence providing new information and perspectives The book includes previously unseen photos and information about Scopes and his relatives as well as insights about the trial s instigators participants and issues all organized in a concise and easily accessible format Inerrant the Wind , Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1950s Susan C. W. Abbotson, 2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions social changes culture media technology industry and political events while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide ranging and thorough survey of theatres companies dramatists new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in depth analysis and re evaluation by a team of experts together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material The major writers and their works to receive in depth coverage in this volume include William Inge Picnic 1953 Bus Stop 1955 and The Dark at the Top of the Stairs 1957 Stephen Sondheim Arthur Laurents and Jerome Robbins West Side Story 1957 and Gypsy 1959 Alice Childress Just a Little Simple 1950 Gold Through the Trees 1952 and Trouble in Mind 1955 Jerome Lawrence and Robert Lee Inherit the Wind 1955 Auntie Mame 1956 and The Gang s All Here 1959 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1962 Margaret Mitchell's Gone With the Wind Ellen F. Brown, John Wiley, 2011-02-16 Margaret Mitchell s Gone With the Wind A Bestseller s Odyssey from Atlanta to Hollywood presents the first comprehensive overview of how this iconic novel became an international phenomenon that has managed to sustain the public s interest for seventy five years Various Mitchell biographies and several compilations of her letters tell part of the story but until now no single source has revealed the full saga This entertaining account of a literary and pop culture phenomenon tells how Mitchell s book was developed marketed distributed and otherwise groomed for success in the 1930s and the savvy measures taken since then by the author her publisher and her estate to ensure its longevity     John Thomas Scopes Randy Moore,2023-07-27 This is the first comprehensive annotated biography of John Scopes the famed defendant in the Scopes Monkey Trial This biography uses new never before published sources photographs and stories from untapped sources John Scopes s family and friends In 1967 John Scopes published his memoirs which focused overwhelmingly on his eight day trial and not on the rest of his life ignoring several important events such as his divorce and remarriage his run for the U S Congress and his challenges with his family This volume is the first complete annotated biography of John Scopes It details his entire life and where appropriate those of his parents siblings wife and children all supported by hundreds of cited sources quotations and family stories Ideal for readers with an interest in academic freedom free speech or the evolution creationism controversy this book uncovers the facts of Scopes s post trial life including the challenges that Scopes faced in his personal life his conversion from a socialist to a political conservative and his final years and death Readers will be surprised to learn that John Scopes s life differed significantly from what has often been presented in the media     Truth and Lives on Film John T.

Aquino,2022-06-17 As early as the Silent Era movie studios were sued over depictions of real people and events Filmmakers have always altered the details of true stories and actual persons living or dead to make narratives more workable and characters more compelling When truth and fantasy become inextricably mixed the effect on people s lives can be significant even devastating This expanded second edition presents an updated history of legal issues surrounding the on screen embellishment of reality with a focus on important court decisions and the use of disclaimers Seventeen courtroom dramas are given fact versus fiction analyses and the The Perfect Storm 1991 is covered in extensive detail A concluding chapter is devoted to actors who became so identified with fictionalized characters that they sought exclusive rights to those personas

A New Literary History of America Greil Marcus,Werner Sollors,2012-05-07 America is a nation making itself up as it goes along a story of discovery and invention unfolding in speeches and images letters and poetry unprecedented feats of scholarship and imagination In these myriad multiform endlessly changing expressions of the American experience the authors and editors of this volume find a new American history In more than two hundred original essays A New Literary History of America brings together the nation s many voices From the first conception of a New World in the sixteenth century to the latest re envisioning of that world in cartoons television science fiction and hip hop the book gives us a new kaleidoscopic view of what Made in America means Literature music film art history science philosophy political rhetoric cultural creations of every kind appear in relation to each other and to the time and place that give them shape The meeting of minds is extraordinary as T J Clark writes on Jackson Pollock Paul Muldoon on Carl Sandburg Camille Paglia on Tennessee Williams Sarah Vowell on Grant Wood s American Gothic Walter Mosley on hard boiled detective fiction Jonathan Lethem on Thomas Edison Gerald Early on Tarzan Bharati Mukherjee on The Scarlet Letter Gish Jen on Catcher in the Rye and Ishmael Reed on Huckleberry Finn From Anne Bradstreet and John Winthrop to Philip Roth and Toni Morrison from Alexander

Dabholkar, 2020-10-02 Whether as a curiosity or a beloved idol Gene Kelly 1912 1996 lives on in our cultural memory as a fantastic dancer in MGM musicals especially Singin in the Rain But dancing however extraordinary was only one of his many gifts This book for the first time offers a full picture of Gene Kelly as the Renaissance man he actually was dancer yes but also choreographer actor clown singer director teacher and mentor Kelly was star of radio and television as well as film avant garde as artist and auteur but also ahead of the curve in opening the world of dance to differences of race ethnicity and gender Gene Kelly The Making of a Creative Legend takes us from Kelly's youth in Depression era Pittsburgh through his years on Broadway and ascendance to stardom in Hollywood Authors Hess and Dabholkar pay particular attention to his work with the US Navy solo directing and lesser known but considerable accomplishments in television radio and on the stage in later years The book gives us a rare inside look at Kelly's relationships with dancing partners and peers from Leslie Caron Vera Ellen and Cyd Charisse to Fred Astaire and at his directorial collaboration with Stanley Donen and Vincent Minnelli and at his solo directing The authors show us significant but little examined facets of Kelly's character and career such as the political convictions that got him graylisted in Hollywood his passion for creating cine dance and serving as an ambassador of dance in America and his forging of links between dance civil rights and the common man Steeped in research and replete with photographs this career biography uniquely encompasses all phases of Gene Kelly's life and work and finally gives us a full portrait of this central figure in the history of the film musical during Hollywood's Golden Age

Summer for the Gods Edward J Larson, 2020-06-16 The Pulitzer Prize winning history of the Scopes Trial and the battle over evolution and creation in America's schools In the summer of 1925 the sleepy hamlet of Dayton Tennessee became the setting for one of the twentieth century's most contentious courtroom dramas pitting William Jennings Bryan and the anti Darwinists against a teacher named John Scopes represented by Clarence Darrow and the ACLU in a famous debate over science religion and their place in public education That trial marked the start of a battle that continues to this day in cities and states throughout the country Edward Larson's classic Summer for the Gods winner of the Pulitzer Prize in History is the single most authoritative account of this pivotal event An afterword assesses the state of the battle between creationism and evolution and points the way to how it might potentially be resolved

Great North American Stage Directors Volume 2 Jonathan Chambers, 2024-01-25 This volume assesses the accomplishments of three mid 20th century North American stage directors Harold Clurman Orson Welles and Margo Jones Though their theatre making endeavours were distinct each produced work that challenged preconceived notions of theatre making all while working within the structure of a company As directors drawn to the potential rewards of collaboration all also were keenly adept at understanding how the relationship with a company of collaborators is often marked by struggle and crisis The essays in this volume explore how these accomplished directors not only created bold work but also drew on the complex energies of the theatre companies with which they worked to reimagine the shape and scope of theatre directing The Great North American Stage Directors series provides an authoritative account of the art of directing in North America by examining the work of twenty four major practitioners from the late 19th century to the present Each of the eight volumes examines three directors and offers an overview of their practices theoretical ideas and contributions to modern theatre The studies chart the life and work of each major North American theatre director placing his or her achievement in the context of other important theatre practitioners and broader social history Written by a team of leading experts the series presents the genealogy of directing in North America while simultaneously chronicling crucial trends and championing contemporary interpretation

Screening a Lynching Matthew Bernstein, 2009 The Leo Frank case of 1913 was one of the most sensational trials of the early twentieth century capturing international attention Frank a northern Jewish factory supervisor in Atlanta was convicted for the murder of Mary Phagan a young laborer native to the South largely on the perjured testimony of an African American janitor The trial was both a murder mystery and a courtroom drama marked by lurid sexual speculation and overt racism The subsequent lynching of Frank in 1915 by an angry mob only made the story more irresistible to historians playwrights novelists musicians and filmmakers for decades to come Matthew H Bernstein is the first scholar to examine the feature films and television programs produced in response to the trial and lynching of Leo Frank He considers the four major surviving
