Prairie Fairies Valerie J. Korinek, 2018-06-26 Prairie Fairies draws upon a wealth of oral archival and cultural histories to recover the experiences of queer urban and rural people in the prairies Focusing on five major urban centres Winnipeg Saskatoon Regina Edmonton and Calgary Prairie Fairies explores the regional experiences and activism of queer men and women by looking at the community centres newsletters magazines and organizations that they created from 1930 to 1985 Challenging the preconceived narratives of queer history Valerie J Korinek argues that the LBGTQ community has a long history in the prairie west and that its history previously marginalized or omitted deserves attention Korinek pays tribute to the prairie activists and actors who were responsible for creating spaces for socializing politicizing and organizing this community both in cities and rural areas Far from the stereotype of the isolated insular Canadian prairies of small towns and farming communities populated by faithful farm families Prairie Fairies historicizes the transformation of prairie cities and ultimately the region itself into a predominantly urban and diverse place

Between Certain Death and a Possible Future Mattilda Bernstein Sycamore, 2021-10-05 Every queer person lives with the trauma of AIDS and this plays out intergenerationally Usually we hear about two generations the first coming of age in the era of gay liberation and then watching entire circles of friends die of a mysterious illness as the government did nothing to intervene And now we hear about younger people growing up with effective treatment and prevention available unable to comprehend the magnitude of the loss But there is another generation between these two one that came of age in the midst of the epidemic with the belief that desire intrinsically led to death and internalized this trauma as part of becoming queer Between Certain Death and a Possible Future Queer Writing on Growing up with the AIDS Crisis offers crucial stories from this missing generation in AIDS literature and cultural politics This wide ranging collection includes 36 personal essays on the ongoing and persistent impact of the HIV AIDS crisis in queer lives Here you will find an expansive range of perspectives on a specific generational story essays that explore and explode conventional wisdom while also providing a necessary bridge between experiences These essays respond with eloquence and incisiveness to the question How do we reckon with the trauma that continues to this day and imagine a way out     The Advocate ,1995-09-19 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States
