Generational Feminism New Materialist Introduction To A Generative Approach:

Generational Feminism Iris van der Tuin, 2015 Iris van der Tuin redirects the notion of generational logic in feminism away from its simplistic conception as conflict. Generational logic is said to problematize feminist theory and gender research as it follows a logic of divide and conquer between the old and the young and participates in patriarchal structures and phallogocentrism. Examining the continental philosophies of Bergson and Deleuze and French feminisms of sexual difference, van der Tuin paves the way for a more complex notion of generationality. This new conception of the term views generational cohorts as static measurements that happen in the flow of being. Prioritizing this generative flow gives what is measured its proper place as an effect. Generational Feminism New Materialist Introduction to a Generative Approach experiments with a previously disregarded methodology's implications as an impetus for a new materialism and advances feminist politics for the twenty-first century.

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Trauma Colin Davis, Hanna Meretoja, 2020-05-11 Literary trauma studies is a rapidly developing field which examines how literature deals with the personal and cultural aspects of trauma and engages with such historical and current phenomena as the Holocaust and other genocides, 9/11, climate catastrophe or the still unsettled legacy of colonialism. The Routledge Companion to Literature and Trauma is a comprehensive guide to the history and theory of trauma studies including key concepts, consideration of critical perspectives and discussion of future developments. It also explores different genres and media such as poetry, life writing, graphic narratives, photography and post-apocalyptic fiction and analyses how literature engages with particular traumatic situations and events such as the Holocaust, the Occupation of France, the Rwandan genocide, Hurricane Katrina and transgenerational nuclear trauma. Forty essays from top thinkers in the field demonstrate the range and vitality of trauma studies as it has been used to further the understanding of literature and other cultural forms across the world. Teaching Gender Beatriz Revelles-Benavente, Ana Ramos, 2017-03-16 Teaching Gender aims to examine the implications of teaching and learning in a neoliberal context from a feminist perspective      A Capsule Aesthetic Kate Mondloch, 2018-01-23 How new media art informed by feminism yields important and original insights about interacting with technologies In A Capsule Aesthetic Kate Mondloch examines how new media installation art intervenes in the fields of technoscience and new materialism showing how three diverse artists Pipilotti Rist Patricia Piccinini and Mariko Mori contribute to the urgent conversation about everyday technology and the ways it constructs our bodies A Capsule Aesthetic establishes the unique insights that feminist theory offers to new media art and new materialisms offering a fuller picture of human nonhuman relations In depth readings of works by Rist Piccinini and Mori explore such questions as the role of the contemporary art museum in our experience of media art how the human is conceived of by biotechnologies and how installation art can complicate and enrich contemporary science's understanding of the brain With vivid firsthand descriptions of the artworks Mondloch takes the reader inside immersive installation pieces showing how they allow us to inhabit challenging theoretical concepts and nonanthropomorphic perspectives Striving to think beyond the anthropocentric and fully consider the material world A Capsule Aesthetic brings new approaches to questions surrounding our technology saturated culture and its proliferation of human to nonhuman interfaces      Feminist Literary and Filmic Cultures for Social Action Beatriz Revelles-Benavente, Adelina Sánchez-Espinosa, 2024-07-08 Feminist Literary and Filmic Cultures for Social Action Gender Response able Labs examines teaching and research practices under feminist new materialisms affect theories and response ability through literary and visual products and offers possible bridges between academia and activism to create feminist interventions in contemporary neoliberal structures Featuring chapters from contributors across a wide range of disciplines this book follows a methodological framework that blends traditionally opposite categories such as theory and practice and explores contemporary literature and films as case studies within innovative feminist response able labs In Feminist Literary and Filmic Cultures for Social Action readers will encounter a collaborative trans disciplinary toolbox which can be of use to multiple disciplines and an invaluable resource to advanced undergraduate students postgraduate researchers and scholars in literary studies film studies feminist theories new materialisms and affective pedagogies      Feminist Literature as Everyday Use Beatriz Revelles-Benavente, 2025-01-23 What can feminist literature actually do How can it affect the world Does it have the power to change the oppressive structures that it opposes Drawing on three of the fundamental wellsprings of feminist theory genealogies methodologies and politics Feminist Literature in the Making argues that it can A new materialist perspective brought to bear on figures like Woolf Morrison and Atwood demonstrates how feminist literature can provide a methodology for social transformation Through techniques like diffractive reading queering time and using bits and pieces to break through grand narratives this book offers a wealth of opportunities to put its methods of literary critique into practice In defiance of the edificial insistence of the Western canon these practices of these methods reveal new ways of reading as a practice of continual textual construction understanding how texts are created and then how to recreate them With this concept literary artifacts can become everyday artifacts not only entanglements between theory methodology and politics but tools for feminist interventions and social transformation

Feminism, Digital Culture and the Politics of Transmission Deborah Withers, 2015-10-02 Feminism Digital Culture and the Politics of Transmission argues that despite the prevalence of generational narratives within feminism the technical processes through which knowledge is transmitted across generations remain unexplored Taking Bernard Stiegler's concept of the already there as its starting point the book considers how the politics of transmission operates within digital culture It argues that it is necessary to re-orient feminism's political project within what is already there so that it may respond to an emergent feminist tradition Grounded in the author's work collecting and interpreting the music making heritage of the UK Women's Liberation Movement it explores how digital technologies have enabled impassioned amateurs to make archives within the first decade of the 21st century The book reflects on what is technically and politically at stake in the organization and transmission of digital artifacts and explores what happens to feminist cultural heritage when circuits shut down stall or become diverted

Feminists Researching Gendered Childhoods Jayne Osgood, Kerry H. Robinson, 2019-02-21 Feminists Researching Gendered Childhoods charts the evolving nature of feminist theory and research methods in childhood studies and the generative potential this holds for researchers academics and educators to continue to push ideas and practices The book traces the threads of affect and effect that feminist theories and methodologies have made over time to thinking more and differently about gender in childhood In the wake of the new materialist turn in feminist research the book sought to address two pressing questions what is especially new about feminist new materialism and what is especially feminist about feminist new materialism These questions are generative troubling unsettling and invited the contributors on an adventure that involved re-turning and reconfiguring ideas and practices about gender and childhood Along with the editors Jayne Osgood UK and Kerry H Robinson Australia five key international feminist scholars Mindy Blaise Australia Bronwyn Davies Australia Debbie Epstein UK Jen Lyttleton Smith UK and Veronica Pacini Ketchabaw Canada collaborated on this book project Their reflective accounts capture the contribution of their own work and that of their peers to advancing research practices and theorisations of gender in childhood Having all approached the study of gendered childhoods in creative and critical ways these important feminist researchers re-engage and critically reflect on their earlier work alongside their more contemporary contributions to the field The book is as much about the processes involved in its creation as it about the material digital end product The chapters work with both familiar and unfamiliar feminist methodological frameworks that bring affect materiality and embodiment as well as textual representations of gender and childhood into play The book engages with and generates artwork poetry photographs as a means to grapple with how gender childhood family curriculum and policy have been and might be researched The book captures a lively collaborative feminist experiment that sought to make space for fresh conceptualisations of gender in childhood Issues addressed include social justice and transformative methodologies in childhood research advancing theoretical perspectives that contribute to fresh understandings of gender in young children's lives the ways that research into gender in childhood play out in educational agendas and the specific gender issues perceived critical to address in contemporary childhoods lived in the post Anthropocene

Plasticity in Motion Robert M. Foschia, 2022-09-23 Plasticity in Motion Sport Gender and Biopolitics argues that sport has a transformative power that when engaged with habitually can create bodies with the athletic ability to succeed at the incredible performances that captivate modern sports audiences Robert M Foschia draws heavily from the influential and extensive work of Catherine Malabou on plasticity the ability to shape and form and similarly argues that transformation is not always positive or infinite with the potential for accidents injuries and excommunications However sport as a discursive space often precludes any mention of these negative transformations asserting itself as pure potential and becoming often to the exclusion of the feminine What occurs if the feminine enters into this space Foschia intentionally integrates the feminine back into hypermasculine discussions of sport opening a new realm of possible transformations to the ways we play watch and think about sports Scholars of communication media studies gender studies rhetoric and sports will find this book particularly useful

A Feminist Companion to the Posthumanities Cecilia Åsberg, Rosi Braidotti, 2018-05-17 This companion is a cutting edge primer to critical forms of the posthumanities and the feminist posthumanities aimed at students and researchers who want to catch up with the recent theoretical developments in various fields in the humanities such as new media studies gender studies cultural studies science and technology studies human animal studies postcolonial critique philosophy and environmental humanities It contains a collection of nineteen new and original short chapters introducing influential concepts ideas and approaches that have shaped and developed new materialism inhuman theory critical posthumanism feminist materialism and posthuman philosophy A resource for students and teachers this comprehensive volume brings together established international scholars and emerging theorists for timely and astute definitions of a moving target posthuman humanities and feminist posthumanities

Everyday Embodiment Julia Coffey, 2021-05-12 This book offers an innovative conceptual and methodological approach to one of the most significant health and wellbeing challenges for contemporary youth body image The social and cultural dimensions shaping body ideals and young people's body image concerns have not been adequately explored in the current landscape of social media and youth body cultures The author provides a sociological reframing of body image foregrounding the social and cultural dimensions which are critical in shaping young people's everyday bodily experiences Chapters explore the significance of gender and wellbeing norms and the ways that circumstances of hardship and inequality are significant in mediating body concerns In this the book complicates simplistic understandings of body image instead showing the complex processes by which body concerns are formed through the circumstances of embodied experience The book advocates for the non individual dimensions of body concerns the social and cultural conditions of young people's lives to be foregrounded in strategies aimed at addressing this complex youth wellbeing issue This text will be of interest to scholars in gender studies youth studies and feminist sociology

Practice Theory and Education Julianne Lynch, Julie Rowlands, Trevor Gale, Andrew Skourdoumbis, 2016-11-25 Practice Theory and Education challenges how we think about practice examining what it means across different fields and sites It is organised into four themes discursive practices practice change and organisations practising subjectivity and professional practice public policy and education Contributors to the collection engage and extend practice theory by drawing on the legacies of diverse social and cultural theorists including Bourdieu de Certeau Deleuze and Guattari Dewey Latour Marx and Vygotsky and by building on the theoretical trajectories of contemporary authors such as Karen Barad Yrjo Engestrom Andreas Reckwitz Theodore Schatzki Dorothy Smith and Charles Taylor The proximity of ideas from different fields and theoretical traditions in the book highlight key matters of concern in contemporary practice thinking including the historicity of practice the nature of change in professional practices the place of discursive material in practice the efficacy of refiguring conventional understandings of subjectivity and agency and the capacity for theories of practice to disrupt conventional understandings of asymmetries of power and resources Their juxtaposition also points to areas of contestation and raises important questions for future research Practice Theory and Education will appeal to postgraduate students academics and researchers in professional practice and education and scholars working with social theory It will be of particular interest to those who wish to move beyond the limiting configurations of practice found in contemporary neoliberal new managerialist and narrow representationalist discourses

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Literary and Cultural Theory Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2018-11-15 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Literary and Cultural Theory is the most comprehensive available survey of the state of theory in the 21st century With chapters written by the world's leading scholars in their field this book explores the latest thinking in traditional schools such as feminist Marxist historicist psychoanalytic and postcolonial criticism and new areas of research in ecocriticism biopolitics affect studies posthumanism materialism and many other fields In addition the book includes a substantial A to Z compendium of key words and important thinkers in contemporary theory making this an essential resource for scholars of literary and cultural theory at all levels

Feminist New Materialisms Beatriz Revelles Benavente, Monika Rogowska-Stangret, Waltraud Ernst, 2020-03-05 For the editors of this collection new materialisms have always been the entanglement of epistemology ontology ethics and politics Looking back to the notion of situated knowledges Haraway 1988 that among others planted the seed for feminist new materialism van der Tuin 2015 26 one sees how those at least four planes are entangled Rogowska Stangret 2018 in order to bring forth response able Haraway 2008 research New materialism is thus an ethico onto epistemological framework Barad 2007 Revelles Benavente 2018 that by activating its ethico politics helps to diagnose infer and transform gendered environmental anthropocentric social injustices from a multidimensional angle Social injustices are a driving motivation to pursue research and are the reason why the editors and authors of this Special Issue cannot understand new materialism without feminism in the lines of eds Hinton Teusch 2015

Contemporary feminist researchers are providing new materialisms with a transversal approach Yuval Davis 1997 that comes from many different disciplines without canonizing back again knowledge creation and production and in hope that they will not enter back into classifixations van der Tuin 2015 It is situated Haraway 1988 research response able Haraway 2008 to material discursive practices that iterate in a dynamic conceptualization of matter

Feminist Methodologies Wendy Harcourt, Karijn van den Berg, Constance Dupuis, Jacqueline Gaybor, 2022-02-03 This open access book gives insights into feminist methodologies in theory and practice By foregrounding the experiential and embodied nature of doing feminist research this book offers valuable tools for feminist research as a continuous praxis Emerging from a rich collective learning process the collection offers in depth reflections on how feminists shape research questions understand positionality share research results beyond academe and produce feminist intersectional knowledges This book reveals how the authors navigate theory and practice candidly exploring the difficulty of producing knowledge on the edge of academia and activism From different points of view places and disciplinary positions artistic and creative experiments and collaborations the book provides a multi layered analysis This book will be a valuable resource and asset to early career researchers and interdisciplinary feminist students who can learn more about the doing of feminist research from realistic accessible and practical methodological tools and knowledge

Affective Connections Dorota Golanska, 2017-12-20 Inspired by the philosophical framework of Deleuze and Guattari in relation to affect Affective Connections disavows the dominant oppositional discourse around representation to offer an affirmative approach to perception cognition and experience It advances a new materialist concept of synaesthetic perception where synaesthesia is understood as a union of senses This idea offers a new figuration for thinking about our cognition exploring the role of embodied experience and the agency of matter in the production of knowledge Looking at a number of memorials memory sites and artworks relating to the Holocaust the book uses this idea of synaesthetic perception to explore trauma memory and the production of art in relation to painful memories In doing so it demonstrates that modes of interacting with the past and encountering the lived experience of trauma can trigger a deeper understanding of these events and produce more complex forms of affective connections It proposes a shift away from empathy towards sympathy understood in new materialist terms not just as a sentimental response to trauma but as an affective notion that allows for a more comprehensive grasp of experiences of discrimination exclusion suffering or pain

Posthuman Glossary Rosi Braidotti, Maria Hlavajova, 2018-02-22 If art science and the humanities have shared one thing it was their common engagement with constructions and representations of the human Under the pressure of new contemporary concerns however we are experiencing a posthuman condition the combination of new developments such as the neoliberal economics of global capitalism migration technological advances environmental destruction on a mass scale the perpetual war on terror and extensive security systems with a troublesome reiteration of old unresolved problems that mean the concept of the human as we had previously known it has undergone dramatic transformations The Posthuman Glossary is a volume providing an outline of the critical terms of posthumanity in present day artistic and intellectual work It builds on the broad thematic topics of Anthropocene Capitalocene eco sophies digital activism algorithmic cultures and security and the inhuman It outlines potential artistic intellectual and activist itineraries of working through the complex reality of the posthuman condition and creates an understanding of the altered meanings of art vis vis critical present day developments It bridges missing links across disciplines terminologies constituencies and critical communities This original work will unlock the terms of the posthuman for students and researchers alike

Diffraction Patterns Birgit M. Kaiser, Kathrin Thiele, 2018-10-18 Diffraction patterns in quantum physics evidence the fact that the behavior of matter is the result of its entanglements with measurement or as Karen Barad suggests the entanglement of matter and meaning In this sense therefore phenomena including texts cultural agents or life forms are the results of their relational onto epistemological entanglements and not individual entities that separately pre exist their joint becoming As such diffraction proposes a new understanding of difference no longer a dualist understanding but one going beyond binaries Diffraction is about patterns constellations relationalities From this angle the book explores diffraction which has begun to impact critical theories and humanities debates especially via new materialist feminisms STS and quantum thought but is often used without further reflection upon its implications or potentials Doing just that the book also pursues new routes for the onto epistemological and ethical challenges that arise from our experience of the world as relational and radically immanent because if we start from the ideas of immanence and entanglement our conceptions of self and other culture and nature cultural and sexual difference our epistemological procedures and disciplinary boundaries have to be rethought and adjusted The book offers an in depth consideration of diffraction as a quantum understanding of difference and as a new critical reading method It reflects on its import in humanities debates and thereby also on some of the most inspiring work recently done at the crossroads of science studies feminist studies and the critical humanities This book was originally published as a special issue of Parallax

Breathing Matters Magdalena Górska, 2016-05-16 Breathing is not a common subject in feminist studies Breathing Matters introduces this phenomenon as a forceful potentiality for feminist intersectional theories politics and social and environmental justice By analyzing the material and discursive as well as the natural and cultural enactments of breath in black lung disease phone sex work and anxieties and panic attacks Breathing Matters proposes a nonuniversalizing and politicized understanding of embodiment In this approach human bodies are conceptualized as agential actors of intersectional politics Magdalena Górska argues that struggles for breath and for breathable lives are matters of differential forms of political practices in which vulnerable and quotidian corporeal and corporeal affective actions are constitutive of politics Set in the context of feminist poststructuralist and new materialist and postconstructionist debates Breathing Matters offers a discussion of human embodiment and agency reconfigured in a posthumanist manner Its interdisciplinary analytical practice demonstrates that breathing is a phenomenon that is important to study from scientific medical political environmental and social perspectives
