Wineburg, 2001-03 Since ancient times the pundits have lamented young people's lack of historical knowledge and warned that ignorance of the past surely condemns humanity to repeating its mistakes In the contemporary United States this dire outlook drives a contentious debate about what key events nations and people are essential for history students Sam Wineburg says that we are asking the wrong questions This book demolishes the conventional notion that there is one true history and one best way to teach it Although most of us think of history and learn it as a conglomeration of facts dates and key figures for professional historians it is a way of knowing a method for developing and understanding about the relationships of peoples and events in the past A cognitive psychologist Wineburg has been engaged in studying what is intrinsic to historical thinking how it might be taught and why most students still adhere to the one damned thing after another concept of history Whether he is comparing how students and historians interpret documentary evidence or analyzing children's drawings Wineburg's essays offer rough maps of how ordinary people think about the past and use it to understand the present Arguing that we all absorb lessons about history in many settings in kitchen table conversations at the movies or on the world wide web for instance these essays acknowledge the role of collective memory in filtering what we learn in school and shaping our historical thinking "When men are unprepared and look not for it" Brähler,

The Bat Tattoo Russell Hoban, 2012-06-18 Recently widowed and increasingly lonely Roswell Clark's life had arrived at the point when he felt he needed a tattoo His ideal image was that of a bat featured on an eighteenth century bowl in the Victoria and Albert Museum but strangely on a visit to the museum he encountered a woman called Sarah Varley who was clearly compelled by the same bat What did it mean Sarah dealt in antiques and Roswell soon ran into her stalls in Chelsea and Covent Garden His calling which grew out of an obsession with crash test dummies was a bit harder to explain It led from the invention of a popular children's toy to lucrative commissions from a Parisian sybarite for wooden working models with very adult moving parts Both Roswell and Sarah had lost their spouses and were still grieving in their different ways And then Christ started putting a hand in literally when a fragment of an ancient crucifix fetched up in one of Sarah's antique lots Between some compulsion conveyed by this hand and Sarah's natural urge to make improvements in people Roswell's work took a surprising new turn Russell Hoban's delicious new novel combines much about art traditional and conceptual with new angles on Christ crash test dummies antiques pornography and a charming tale of romance The Cowboy's Surrender - The Sweeter Version: Book Two Anne Marie Novark, 2014-02-08 THE COWBOY'S SURRENDER The Sweeter Version Book Two The Diamondback Ranch Sweeter Series Contemporary Western Romance Novel 52 000 words 149pp AUTHOR'S NOTE This is a SWEETER NOT sweet and clean version of The Cowboy's Surrender It's the same characters and story but with love scenes that are less graphic and explicit If you want a hotter sexier read check out the original version in The Diamondback Ranch Series BLURB Copper River Oil Company is drilling for oil on the Diamondback Ranch Dallas McCade can't do a thing to stop them because he doesn't own the mineral rights To add insult to injury they've sent a woman to oversee the operation Dallas has good reason to distrust women As soon as he sets eyes on Gillian Bankston he loses his temper and his control That makes him spitting mad and frustrated as hell Gillian has never met a man quite like Dallas He's
