The Godfather, Part II Jon Lewis, 2022-10-06 Francis Ford Coppola's The Godfather Part II 1974 is a magisterial cinematic work a gorgeous stylized auteur epic and one of the few sequels judged by many to be greater than its predecessor This despite the fact that it consists largely of meetings between aspiring Godfather Michael Corleone and fellow gangsters politicians and family members The meetings remind us that the modern gangster's success is built upon inside information and on strategic planning Michael and his father Vito's days resemble those of the legitimate businessmen they aspire or pretend to be Jon Lewis's study of Coppola's masterpiece provides a close analysis of the film and a discussion of its cinematic and political contexts It is structured in three sections The Sequel The Dissolve and The Sicilian Thing accommodating three avenues of inquiry respectively the film's importance in and to Hollywood history its unique auteur style and form and its cultural significance Of interest then is New Hollywood history mise en scene and a view of the Corleone saga as a cautionary capitalist parable as a metaphor of the corruption of American power post Vietnam post Watergate Sequel to History Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth, 2020-10-06 Sequel to History offers a comprehensive definition of postmodernism as a reformation of time Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth uses a diversified theoretical approach drawing on post structuralism feminism new historicism and twentieth century science to demonstrate the crisis of our dominant idea of history and its dissolution in the rhythmic time of postmodernism She enlarges this definition in discussions of several crises of cultural identity the crisis of the object the crisis of the subject and the crisis of the sign Finally she explores the relation between language and time in post modernism proposing an arresting theory of her own about the rhythmic nature of postmodern temporality Because the postmodern construction of time appears so clearly in narrative writing each part of this work is punctuated by a rhythm section on a postmodern narrative Robbe Grillet's Jealousy Cortezar's Hopscotch and Nabokov's Invitation to a Beheading these extended readings provide concrete illustrations of Ermarth's theoretical positions As in her critically acclaimed Realism and Consensus in the English Novel Ermarth ranges across disciplines from anthropology and the visual arts to philosophy and history For its interdisciplinary character and its lucid definition of postmodernism Sequel to History will appeal to all those interested in the humanities
