Grant, 2015-08-04 Permanently on the road a teenage girl struggles to keep her family together Sixteen year old Mary Wolf can remember when her family lived in a house when her father was a successful insurance executive who would jump through sprinklers with his briefcase just to make her laugh But he never got back on his feet after his business collapsed and he had to move the whole Wolf family into a giant RV taking them on the road for a permanent vacation Now he drives Mary her pregnant mother and her three little sisters from city to city where they stay at campgrounds and parks with other homeless people never remaining in one place for long Mary's mother has turned to petty theft to make ends meet and her dad loses his temper too much to hold down a job but both insist that everything is going to be fine Watching her parents increasingly deny the reality of their situation Mary can feel it Her whole family is coming to the end of a road WALNECK'S CLASSIC CYCLE TRADER, MAY 2000 Causey Enterprises, LLC, What You Take with You Therese Greenwood, 2019-04-02 A memoir of disaster survival and how our treasured objects can be the priceless vessels that carry the stories of both our past and our future Diane Schoemperlen author of This Is Not My Life Four years after Therese Greenwood and her husband moved to Fort McMurray Alberta their new community was shattered by one of the worst wildfires in Canadian history As the flames approached they had only minutes to pack narrowly escaping a fire that would rage for weeks burn more than 85 000 hectares and force 80 000 people to flee In this book she tells her dramatic story and contemplates mourning memory and rebuilding By considering the things that she lost in the blaze and the things that were saved Greenwood takes the reader with her through her own evacuation the road to safety the grief that she experienced on losing her home and the steps to her recovery a beautiful book sharply observed and gripping Miranda Hill author of Sleeping Funny The Protectors and the Motorcyclists John Mansfield, 2022-04-19 All of Jack's life he had experienced many close calls with serious injury or death They began when he was very young and continued throughout his life He always believed he was just lucky but at the age of about twenty he came to realize God and his angels indeed were protecting him All of the supernatural events that happened to Jack through the years are real Even as a teenager he had a premonition of his younger brother s death For obvious reasons he only told a few people just bits and pieces of the strange things that had happened to him He didn t want people to think he was crazy In fact for his entire life he never even told his parents about these experiences Jack became a very passionate motorcyclist as a means to try to balance the extreme anxiety he often felt as a result of his otherworldly experiences The many motorcycle trips he took were therapeutic for him in so many ways Over time he developed a rather unique theory about the direction mankind was taking and the shape of things to come More than anything else this is the story about the ups and downs most people face in life and how having complete trust in God can get you through even the most difficult situations

George's World G. E. Shuman,2012-07-31 For more than eighteen years now my humble column has appeared on a bi weekly basis in The WORLD Central Vermont s favorite newspaper Note If you looked for the column every other week but started on the wrong week you missed it completely This book is a collection of many of those writings so you have another chance The earliest ones are not here as pasting stories from slate tablets onto word documents is a difficult thing to do If you find any bits of wisdom between these covers it s not my fault
