The aim of this series is to publish important and original research on EU law. The focus is on scholarly monographs with a particular emphasis on those which are interdisciplinary in nature. Edited collections of essays will also be included where they are appropriate. The series is wide in scope and aims to cover studies of particular areas of substantive and of institutional law, historical works, theoretical studies and analyses of current debates as well as questions of perennial interest such as the relationship between national and EU law and the novel forms of governance emerging in and beyond Europe. The fact that many of the works are interdisciplinary will make the series of interest to all those concerned with the governance and operation of the EU.

Book jacket The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb, 2018-03-27. Spans the relationships among business ethics and society by including numerous entries that feature broad coverage of corporate social responsibility, the obligation of companies to various stakeholder groups, the contribution of business to society and culture, and the relationship between organizations and the quality of the environment. Applied Business Robert Dransfield, David Needham, 2005. Exactly what you need for the new AS level GCE in Applied Business. These brand new books have been written to match the specifications of this new qualification and provide all the information needed whether it is a single award or double award with Edexcel or OCR. Four separate books ensure that students receive exactly the right support with no redundant material. Lots of activities add interest and give students the opportunity to work outside the classroom in the real business world. This helps to emphasise the vocational nature of the qualification. Case studies with questions give students real life perspectives on business and the issues surrounding it. Marginal notes draw attention to key points and suggest relevant activities. Thinking Allowed Mick Waters, 2013-04-15. Mick Waters has consistently been a down to earth voice in the increasingly complex world of education for many years. He has regularly endeared himself to school communities in the UK and overseas by talking the sort of sense they needed to hear, practical, challenging, inspiring, insightful, engaging. His unique perspective, closeness to the classroom and ability to see innovation in terms of its impact on learners mean his views are always worth listening to. In this long awaited book Mick tells it how it is. The things he believes in, the things he wants to see differently, Wry reflections, humorous insights, astute asides and simple ideas to change the system and the future for young people everywhere. This is the book you have been waiting for. Advocacy and Organizational Engagement Lukasz M. Bochenek, 2019-10-11. In providing a comprehensive overview on how to design and execute effective advocacy strategies for organizations, this book challenges the way communications used to be managed. Instead, it proposes and provides tools for multilateral advocacy where multiple actors and institutions cooperate as a driver.
