Change and Reform in Law Enforcement Scott W. Phillips, Dilip K. Das, 2016-10-26 This book provides broad exposure to a variety of policing reforms that have not received adequate attention It includes information and examples from different countries regarding efforts to change aspects of policing that are problematic or involve changes in the way crimes are committed Some of the efforts to improve the police are relatively recent i e using social media and some areas of policing that seem to require frequent attention i e working with the public

Policing for a New South Africa Mike Brogden, Clifford D. Shearing, 2005-08-04 The state police force of South Africa has acquired massive notoriety since its formation Its officers have developed a reputation for routinely provoking violence and torturing suspects As the key bastion of apartheid it is in urgent need of change In Policing for a New South Africa Mike Brogden and Clifford Shearing evaluate the options for change They critically analyse orthodox policing ideas imported from the West and contrast them with the indigenous model of independent policing from the townships of South Africa itself Together they offer significant possibilities for the future Importantly they suggest that rather than South Africans import ideas wholesale from the West the latter countries in the light of the failures of their own police systems have much to learn from South Africa
