Memorandum Tourism March Common Paper 24:

Waterloo Sunrise John Davis, 2022-03-15 Why London Why now The swinging moment The death of the Sixties 1 Soho Sixties London's erogenous zone The death of the Sixties 2 The fall of the House of Biba Now that Londoners have discovered the delights of the palate eating out in Sixties and Seventies London Hot property it's mine The lure and the limits of home ownership You only have to look at Westway The end of the urban motorway in London The conservation consensus East End Docklands and the death of Poplarism The London cabbie and the rise of Essex man Protecting the good life London's suburbs Containing racism The London experience 1957 1968 Unquiet grove The 1976 Notting Hill carnival riot Reshaping the welfare state Voluntary action and community in London 1960 1975 Strains of labour in the inner city Selling swinging London or coming to terms with the tourist Becoming post Industrial Bibliography Capital of the World Charlene Mires, 2015-04-08 From 1944 to 1946 as the world pivoted from the Second World War to an unsteady peace Americans in more than two hundred cities and towns mobilized to chase an implausible dream The newly created United Nations needed a meeting place a central place for global diplomacy a Capital of the World But what would it look like and where would it be Without invitation civic boosters in every region of the United States leapt at the prospect of transforming their hometowns into the Capital of the World The idea stirred in big cities Chicago San Francisco St Louis New Orleans Denver and more It fired imaginations in the Black Hills of South Dakota and in small towns from coast to coast Meanwhile within the United Nations the search for a headquarters site became a debacle that threatened to undermine the organization in its earliest days At times it seemed the world's diplomats could agree on only one thing under no circumstances did they want the United Nations to be based in New York And for its part New York worked mightily just to stay in the race it would eventually win With a sweeping view of the United States place in the world at the end of World War II Capital of the World tells the dramatic surprising and at times comic story of hometown promoters in pursuit of an extraordinary prize and the diplomats who struggled with the balance of power at a pivotal moment in history Destination Casablanca Meredith Hindley, 2017-10-10 This rollicking and panoramic history of Casablanca during the Second World War sheds light on the city as a key hub for European and American powers and a place where spies soldiers and political agents exchanged secrets and vied for control In November 1942 as a part of Operation Torch 33 000 American soldiers sailed undetected across the Atlantic and stormed the beaches of French Morocco Seventy four hours later the Americans controlled the country and one of the most valuable wartime ports Casablanca In the years preceding Casablanca had evolved from an exotic travel destination to a key military target after France's surrender to Germany Jewish refugees from Europe poured in hoping to obtain visas and passage to the United States and beyond Nazi agents and collaborators infiltrated the city in search of power and loyalty The resistance was not far behind as shopkeepers celebrities former French Foreign Legionnaires and disgruntled bureaucrats formed a network of Allied spies But once in American hands Casablanca became a crucial logistical hub in the fight against Germany and the site of Roosevelt and Churchill's demand for unconditional surrender. Rife with rogue soldiers, power grabs and diplomatic intrigue, Destination Casablanca is the riveting and untold story of this glamorous city memorialized in the classic film that was rushed released in 1942 to capitalize on the drama that was unfolding in North Africa at the heart of World War II.

Awkward Dominion Frank Costigliola, 1984 In Awkward Dominion Frank Costigliola offers a striking interpretation of the emergence of the United States as a world power in the 1920s, a period in which the country faced both burdens and opportunities as a result of the First World War. Exploring the key international issues in the interwar period, peace treaty revisions, Western economic recovery and modernization, Costigliola considers American political and economic success in light of Europe's fascination with American technology, trade and culture. The figures through which he tells this story include Herbert Hoover, Calvin Coolidge, Henry Stimson, Charles Lindbergh, Ernest Hemingway and Henry Ford.

Protected Places Gerald Killan, 1993-07-25 Since the founding of Algonquin Provincial Park in 1893, Ontario has developed a parks system that is held in the highest regard. Today, some 260 parks span the province. Protected Places is a comprehensive account of the attitudes and actions that have shaped provincial parks policy over the century, notably those of early conservationists and more recently of environmentalists, aboriginal peoples, vacationers of every description, naturalists, scientists, loggers, miners, concession operators, the administrators with the responsibility to plan, develop and manage the parks, and the politicians who made the ultimate decisions on policy matters. Author Gerald Killan's analysis cuts across the disciplines of history, geography, political science, environmental studies and the earth and life sciences. The book will be of compelling interest to readers from all these backgrounds as well as the park visitor. Protected Places is being published in 1993 as part of the celebration of the Centennial of Ontario's provincial parks.

The Ideological Scramble for Africa Frank Gerits, 2023-03-15 In The Ideological Scramble for Africa, Frank Gerits examines how African leaders in the 1950s and 1960s crafted an anticolonial modernization project. Rather than choose Cold War sides between East and West, anticolonial nationalists worked to reverse the psychological and cultural destruction of colonialism. Kwame Nkrumah's African Union was envisioned as a federation of liberation to challenge the extant imperial forces: the US empire of liberty, the Soviet empire of equality and the European empires of exploitation. In the 1950s, the goal of proving the potency of a pan-African ideology shaped the agenda of the Bandung Conference and Ghana's support for African liberation, while also determining what was at stake in the Congo crisis and in the fight against white minority rule in southern and eastern Africa. In the 1960s, the attempt to remake African psychology was abandoned and socioeconomic development came into focus. Anticolonial nationalists did not simply resist or utilize imperial and Cold War pressures but drew strength from the example of the Haitian Revolution of 1791, in which Toussaint Louverture demanded the universal application of Europe's Enlightenment values. The liberationists of the postwar period wanted to redesign society in the image of the revolution that had created them. The Ideological Scramble for Africa demonstrates that the Cold War struggle between capitalism and Communism was only one of two ideological struggles that picked up speed after 1945 the battle between liberation and imperialism proved to be more enduring Minutes of Proceedings ... 1st Senate, 1st Parliament, 1st Session- South Africa. Parliament. Senate,1972 Documents & State Papers United States Department of State. Office of Public Affairs,1948 Armor ,2006 Treaties in Force United States. Department of State. opportunities irresistible because of its prodigious potential while Chinese reinterpreted the United States as an agent of modernization capable of enriching their country and rejuvenating their lives Drawing on extensive research at two dozen archives in the United States and China People's Diplomacy redefines contemporary US China relations as a creation of the American and Chinese people A Citizen's Right To Know Susan G.
