The American adult education system has become an alternative for school dropouts with some state welfare policies requiring teen mothers and women without high school diplomas to participate in adult education programs to receive aid Currently low income women of color are more likely to be enrolled in the lowest levels of adult basic education Very little has been published about women's experiences in these mandatory programs and whether the programs reproduce the conditions that forced women to drop out in the first place Lorna Rivera bridges the gap with this important study the product of ten years active ethnographic research with formerly homeless women who participated in adult literacy education classes before and after welfare reform She draws on rich interviews with organizers and participants in the Adult Learners Program at Project Hope a women's shelter and community development organization in Boston's Dudley neighborhood one of the poorest in the city Analyzing the web of ideological contradictions regarding work first welfare reform policies Rivera argues that poverty is produced and reproduced when women with low literacy skills are pushed into welfare to work programs and denied education She examines how various discourses about individual choice and self sufficiency shape the purposes of literacy how low income women express a sense of personal responsibility for being poor and how neoliberal ideologies and practices compromise the goals of critical literacy programs Throughout this study the voices and experiences of formerly homeless women challenge cultural stereotypes about poor women showing in personal and structural terms how social and economic forces shape and restrict opportunities for low income women of color

Titian Strands Keith Healicon, 2025-03-20 Ged Hilton was raised in the tough but honest inner city district of West Gorton Manchester His Irish parents had moved there from the troubled Shankhill road area of Belfast in the late 1950's The father was a hard drinking pub brawling labourer The mother was a petite genteel red headed titian lady Ged took after his father Steven Ged's only sibling took after his mother The Hiltons were soon followed over the Irish sea by fellow Belfast born young priest Father Patrick Ged never sought or caused trouble but he was a natural magnet for it His early life was beset by calamities Soon after the early death of his father Ged assaulted his schoolteacher resulting in him being detained at a youth remand centre It was there he met long term friend Fingers but also long term arch enemies in vile bullies Burgess and Taylor One awful event followed another including the involvement in a failed warehouse robbery A short hell raising pro boxing career was followed by troubles working as a pub bouncer Ged was involved in a couple of relationships the second partner losing her unborn baby after an altercation with the Burgess family There were many more incidents The story starts and culminates with the violent murder of Burgess by an enigmatic petite beautiful redhead titian Burgess is mercilessly stabbed several times in the neck before being launched into the canal in the gay village area The only clues found are three strands of titian red coloured hair which turn out to be misleading anyway Who was the mysterious titian beauty Who was she he How to Bloom Where You Are Darial Jackson, 2013-08-27 Reading How to Bloom Where You Are restores confidence that you can make a difference wherever God has placed you Learn how Rev Darial Jackson faced many challenges and controversies in his life After serving as a police officer for many years he was later sentenced to prison He allowed God to use him to minister hope to the inmates and has been a pastor for the past fifteen years Make today your starting point to bloom into your destiny
