Matisse and Decoration John Klein,2018-01-01 A brand new look at the extremely beautiful if underappreciated later works of one of the most inventive artists of the 20th century Between 1935 and his death at midcentury Henri Matisse 1869 1954 undertook many decorative projects and commissions These include mural paintings stained glass ceramic tiles lead crystal pieces carpets tapestries fashion fabrics and accessories work that has received no significant treatment until now By presenting a wealth of new insights and unpublished material including from the artist s own correspondence John Klein an internationally acclaimed specialist in the art of Matisse offers a richer and more balanced view of Matisse s ambitions and achievements in the often neglected later phases of his career Matisse designed many of these decorations in the innovative and widely admired medium of the paper cut out whose function and significance Klein reevaluates Matisse and Decoration also opens a window onto the revival and promotion following World War II of traditional French decorative arts as part of France s renewed sense of cultural preeminence For the first time the idea of the decorative in Matisse's work and the actual decorations he designed for specific settings are integrated in one account amounting to an understanding of this modern master's work that is simultaneously more nuanced and more comprehensive Developmental Art Therapy in the Classroom Geraldine H. Williams, Mary M. Wood, 50 Fantastic Ideas Inspired by Famous Artists Judith Harries, 2019-07-11 _____ The 50 Fantastic Ideas series is packed full of fun original skills based activities for Early Years practitioners to use with children aged 0-5. Each activity features step by step guidance, a list of resources and a detailed explanation of the skills children will learn. Creative, simple and highly effective, this series is a must have for every Early Years setting. 50 Fantastic Ideas Inspired by Famous Artists uses well known art as a visual inspiration to develop expressive art and design skills in the Early Years. It is much easier now to access art online and to bring inspirational pieces into a setting without having to buy postcards or visit an art gallery. Drawing on these readily available online sources, Judith Harries presents 50 ideas featuring a range of diverse artists from Lubaina Himid and Friedensreich Hundertwasser to Mary Delany and Picasso and famous art including pop and street art, sculpture and portraiture. Using art supplies easily found in and outside the classroom such as paints, clay, pipe cleaners and natural resources like leaves and flowers, the interactive activities found in this book are ideal for inspiring creativity and fun at the same time.
