How To Repair Zen Clock:

The Buddha in the Machine R. John Williams, 2014-06-24 The writers and artists described in this book are joined by a desire to embrace Eastern aesthetics as a means of redeeming Western technoculture The assumption they all share is that at the core of modern Western culture there lies an originary and all encompassing philosophical error and that Asian art offers a way out of that awful matrix That desire this book attempts to demonstrate has informed Anglo and even Asian American debates about technology and art since the late nineteenth century and continues to skew our responses to our own technocultural environment Auto Motor Journal Stanley Spooner, 1912 Life, Language, and Poetry Richard W. Leland, 2024-02-09 About the Book Donald Hall remains one of the most published writers of his time Named Poet Laureate by President George W Bush Hall continued to publish both poetry and prose up to the time of his death in 2018 While his last writing focused mainly on prose Hall will likely be remembered for his undeniable contribution to many different styles and genres of writing He was well known to many if not most of the published poets of his age It remains somewhat of a mystery however that so renowned and published a writer would perpetuate a correspondence of nearly eleven years with someone he never met and could know nothing about It never occurred to me that Donald Hall would respond to my initial letter to him My initial letter to him was chiefly to tell him how much I had admired his poetry how often I had used his poetry in my teaching what some of the issues his most recent poetry raised for me all while wishing him well in his future endeavors I did not expect any response to what I understood to be a stand alone letter and could not have imagined then that a correspondence so innocently and routinely begun would continue for eleven years All of the letters I wrote to Hall in those eleven years are included in this collection Most of my professional life has been in academia I received a PhD Degree from the University of Minnesota in 1975 the same year I began my tenured teaching at East Stroudsburg University in eastern Pennsylvania Throughout my adult life I have always been a writer though not one who ever prioritized publishing I ve written poetry short stories essays and full length plays However my search was always for ever greater authenticity in my own writing and ever greater satisfaction in the authenticity other writers were able to achieve Very few who know me know anything of my life as a writer I am not sure looking back why I persisted and continue to persist in writing but I do know that writing has been a meaningful act in guiding the integrity of my own life When I am alone and at my desk I confront myself I seek an honesty of thought and emotion difficult to find elsewhere But what I have discovered is that in attempting to come ever closer to my own individuality of thought and emotion I paradoxically come closer to thoughts and emotions shared by many That being the case there may be a wider interest in how those thoughts and emotions evolved over the eleven years of a correspondence focused primarily on writing and its inter connection with the challenges of ordinary living You will need to be the judge of that Manual of the Corporation of the City of New York New York (N.Y.).
