

Frequently Asked Questions

How much does it really cost?

This is dependent upon the things which include your age, your health status, the way you live and the location of your policy, and there is no one-size-fits-all answer for a policy of any amount.

The most important thing to do is to consider how it will get along for a year, and then to look at your other costs. It is not unusual for people to think about getting a policy and then find out that they cannot afford it. It is important to talk to your agent and to your family about the costs of the policy before you buy it.
