North Atlantic Division,1972 Arming the World Geoffrey S. Stewart,2024-05-31 Arming the World tells the story of the American small arms industry from the early 1800 s through the post Civil War era Almost from the beginning the United States produced arms in new and radically different ways relying upon machinery to mass produce guns when others still made them by hand Leveraging their technological advantage American gun makers produced guns with interchangeable parts and perfected new types of small arms ranging from revolvers to repeating rifles The federal government s staggering purchases of arms during the Civil War stimulated the development of fast firing breech loading rifles and metal cased ammunition When in 1865 it became clear that every country in the world had re equip itself with modern weapons the Americans had an overwhelming head start Salesmen from Remington Winchester Colt and Smith Wesson and from lesser known firms too traveled the world marketing their guns dominating or perhaps even inventing the international arms business American gun makers sold rifles and side arms by the millions and cartridges by the billions to great powers restive colonies and fading empires alike Adding a new element to the unstable global balance of power American gun makers affected the course of history Resources in Education ,1981-04

The Municipal Year Book and Public Services Directory ,1991 Forward into Battle Paddy Griffith,2011-03-30 The first edition 1981 took a critical look at the accepted wisdom of historians who interpreted battlefield events primarily by reference to firepower It showed that Wellington s infantry had won by their mobility rather than their musketry that the bayonet did not become obsolete in the nineteenth century as is often claimed and that the tank never supplanted the infantryman in the twentieth A decade later the author has been able to fill out many parts of his analysis and has extended it into the near future The Napoleonic section includes an analysis of firepower and fortification notably at the Battle of New Orleans in 1815 Additional discussions of the tactics of the American Civil War have been included The evolution of small unit tactics in the First World War is next considered then the problem of making an armored breakthrough in the Second World War Following is a discussion of the limitations of both the helicopter and firepower in Vietnam The author points to some of the lessons learned by the U S military and the doctrine which resulted from that experience Concluding is a glimpse at the strangely empty battlefield landscape that might be expected in any future high technology conflict Environmental Rating of Indian Automobile Sector ,2001 Gothic Forensics Michael Arntfield,2016-06-27 Michael Arntfield interrogates the legacy of Victorian era crime fiction and Gothic horror on investigative forensic methods used by police today The Cumulative Book Index ,1956 Homeworking Women Annie Phizacklea Carol Wolkowitz,Professor Annie Phizacklea,Dr Carol Wolkowitz,1995-02-02 An up to date overview of all types of home based work is provided in this volume which makes an important contribution to sociological and policy debates on homeworking The authors argue that homeworking replicates wider divisions in the labour force and that its potential for improving women s employment opportunities is therefore limited Using original research they outline the advantages and disadvantages the pay and conditions and the family situations for contemporary women homeworkers Gender class racism and ethnicity are shown to be key factors in constructing the homeworking labour force The authors acknowledge the shared position that homeworkers occupy as women as well as the differences experienced by clerical manufacturing and professional homeworkers and question whether new technology in itself can be the way forward to a better paid less onerous form of homeworking Resources in Education ,1981 The Musical Times and Singing-class Circular ,1911 The Poultry Monthly ,1879 Counselling and Identity Alex Howard,2004-11-17 Questions relating to personal identity are of central importance within counselling which is often seen as an essentially and perhaps excessively me focussed activity People often come to counsellors to find reclaim come to terms with or control aspects of themselves They want to see how they have been shaped helped or damaged by their circumstances Yet there has been surprisingly little systematic examination of the conceptions of self that are could be or should be available to counsellors This accessible book meets this need and more deeply than most other texts into the foundations and underlying presuppositions of the subject Alex Howard takes a fresh look at counselling and psychotherapy and advocates greater philosophical and sociological awareness for trainees Official Year Book of New South Wales ,1924 The Official Year Book of New South Wales ,1924 Official Yearbook of New South Wales New South Wales.
