You Guys are Good - for Girls! Donna R. Gataletto, 2015-04-04 At a time when women musicians were just the front singers in groups Donna dreamed of putting her own group together and being not only a singer but an electric lead guitarist This concept was groundbreaking in the 1960s when women musicians typically played folk music on acoustic guitars not rock funk or R B on electric guitars Excited by Donna's vision and energy other women signed on to play drums keyboards bass and rhythm guitar They quickly learned about the double standard that existed for men and women This did not deter them in any way but made them stronger and more determined to achieve their musical goals Donna would like to believe that her band's courage passion and drive helped to open doors for future female musicians This is a feel good autobiography for anyone who's ever had a dream

Child Support Nicholas

Wikeley, 2006-10-10 Written by one of the UK's leading scholars of welfare law this book analyses the current child support legislation in its broader historical and social context synthesising both doctrinal and socio legal approaches to legal research and scholarship The book draws on the historical and legal literature on the Poor Law and the development of both the public and private law obligation of child maintenance Modern child support law must also be considered in the context of both social and demographic changes and in the light of popular norms about child maintenance liabilities The main part of the book is devoted to an analysis of the modern child support scheme and the key issues are addressed the distinction between applications in private and benefit cases and the extent to which the courts retain a role in child maintenance matters the basis for and the justification for the exception from the obligation for parents with care on benefit to co operate with the Child Support Agency where they fear undue harm or distress the assessment of income for the purposes of the formula and the evidential difficulties this entails the tension between the formula which ignores the parent with care's income and the demands of distributive justice the further conflict between the formula under which liability is capped only for the very wealthy and the traditional approach of private law which is premised on children being entitled to maintenance rather than a share in family wealth the treatment of special cases under the formula by way of variations formerly departures the nature of decision making and the scope for appeals and the efficacy of the provisions relating to collection and enforcement This book has been shortlisted for the 2007 SLSA Book Prize      10 Hours to Live Brian Wills, 2010-09-07 I give him ten hours to live That s what the doctor said after diagnosing twenty two year old Brian Wills with one of the deadliest and fastest growing cancers known as Burkitt s lymphoma Incredibly this rare tumor grew from the size of a golf ball to nine inches in diameter in only three days Thus began Brian s life threatening battle both physical and spiritual to receive a full recovery by focusing on God s powerful promises of healing Through his incredible true life testimony of healing against all odds find out how you can Overcome the most hopeless of circumstances Learn how to apply God s Word for healing Build your faith for the miraculous Discover joy in the midst of suffering Receive comfort in times of trial 10 Hours to Live includes many other testimonies of people who have been supernaturally healed by the power of God      New York Efforts to Address the Unmet Legal Needs of the State's Poor, September, 1991 to December, 1993 New York State Bar Association.
