Pedagogic Practices, Student Engagement and Equity in Chinese as a Foreign Language Education Wen Xu, 2021-12-27 This book explores and analyses Chinese as a Foreign Language CFL pedagogic practices and learning experiences within a cohort of low socio economic status students within an Australian primary classroom It demonstrates that in spite of policy and educational discourses underpinning Asian literacies Chinese teaching and learning is a fragile undertaking in Australian schooling The politicisation of CFL education especially in the post COVID 19 era has exacerbated public stereotypes concerning racism and multiculturalism in Australia today Drawing upon Bernstein s theorisation and engagement framework Wen Xu sketches out CFL education as a democratic space where power and control relations can be deliberately operated to reinforce engaging learning experiences She suggests that pedagogic interventions in the name of social justice have the potential to make consequential differences in disadvantaged students life trajectories and CFL education can be envisioned as an avenue towards socioeconomic mobility instead of being criticised as a platform opposing to liberal ideas In turn she provides insights into teaching younger age CFL learners in the global context in terms of the structuring of pedagogy and curriculum Wen Xu s research will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology of education student engagement pedagogy and curriculum CFL education and languages education as well as pre service teachers and practitioners who teach Chinese as a Foreign Language

Teacher Management in China Eva Huang, John Benson, Ying Zhu, 2016-03-17 Education has long been highly valued in China and continues to be highly valued both by the state which appreciates the value of education for maintaining China s economic rise and by parents who affected by the One Child Policy devote a large proportion of their incomes to their one child s education This book explores current systems of teacher management in China and assesses their effectiveness It charts the development of China's education system outlines present day human resource management methods in Chinese schools including practices for recruitment and selection training and development performance appraisal and rewards both pay and non financial rewards and describes recent changes and innovations The book concludes that a high performance work system enhanced by traditional paternalistic humanised management and by pragmatism predominates with important consequences for teachers jobs and performance and for the quality of students school life Business Advantage Intermediate Teacher's Book
