Revenant Eve Sherwood Smith, 2012-11-06 Once upon a time I had known nothing about my family But then I went to Europe and discovered who I really was And my new life well it was like something right out of a fairy tale I was a member of the royal family of Dobrenica a tiny obscure European country with some very unusual attributes Like magic And ghosts And vampires But for the first time in my life I was truly happy I was engaged to be married to the heir apparent to the throne and we were in love So my mood was high as I walked under the triumphal arch in the center of the capital city and passed the off little painting of a door that had intrigued me ever since I first came to Dobrenica It was rendered so realistically that on first glance it seemed three dimensional and I always ran my fingers over the amazing painting as I passed But this time my fingers closed on an actual cold metal doorknob and the door swung inward revealing a sun drenched landscape and a teenage girl with honey colored braids As I stepped over the magical threshold she spoke You are called to guide the child Aurelie she said But that is only half your task to save Dobrenica you must bring her here And with that she disappeared leaving me floating like a spirit in a strange world two hundred years in the past
