Generation To Generation Family Process In Church And Synagogue:

Generation to Generation Edwin Friedman, 2011-06-17 An acclaimed influential work now available in paper for the first time this bestselling book applies the concepts of systemic family therapy to the emotional life of congregations Edwin H Friedman shows how the same understanding of family process that can aid clergy in their pastoral role also has important ramifications for negotiating congregational dynamics and functioning as an effective leader Clergy from diverse denominations as well as family therapists and counselors have found that this book directly addresses the dilemmas and crises they encounter daily It is widely used as a text in courses on pastoral care leadership and family systems

Generation to Generation Edwin H. Friedman, 1987 Friedman applies the concept of systemic family theory along with his experiences as a Rabbi and practicing therapist to the emotional life of the congregation and its leaders

Family-Based Palliative Care Jane Marie Kirschling, 2018-10-24 Learn to interact with families in ways that promote family functioning when a family member is dying Family Based Palliative Care is an insightful book that aims to increase professionals understanding of the family as client Authoritative contributors who are experienced in working with the terminally ill present the most current theory practice and research related to family based care of hospice patients Each readable chapter includes a wealth of information that can be applied to health care settings in which holistic care is a priority The first chapter presents a conceptual framework for caring for families of the terminally ill as well as clinical examples that are used to illustrate the application of the framework in practice Experts describe four research studies two qualitative studies that examine sources of stress for caregivers and identify the resources used by families to manage at home a methodological study that explores the positive and negative aspects of family caregiving and a case study that evaluates a hospice staff s efforts in providing family based care Because little research has been done with family caregivers of terminally ill hospice patients Family Based Palliative Care will be essential reading for nurses social workers hospice staff and other professionals whose job it is to care for the dying and their families Family Systems and Congregational Life R.

Robert Creech, 2019-02-19 Experienced pastor and seminary teacher R Robert Creech helps pastoral leaders increase their effectiveness by applying family systems theory to congregational life and ministry Creech introduces readers to the basic concepts of Bowen Family Systems Theory applies family theory to the work of ministry in church settings and connects systems thinking to the everyday aspects of congregational ministry such as preaching pastoral care leadership spiritual formation and interpreting biblical texts Each chapter contains discussion questions and there are five helpful appendixes with supplemental information about Bowen theory Indispensable Guide for Smaller Churches David R. Ray, 2009-06-01 This book complements the author s earlier titles from The Pilgrim Press The Big Small Church Book and Wonderful Worship in Smaller Churches Ray expands on the earlier works by treating such subjects as communal theology theories and tools for understanding smaller churches worship education and finance His vision is to lead even smaller churches toward the year 2030 The Practice of Family Therapy Suzanne Midori Hanna, 2018-10-15 Now in its fifth edition The Practice of Family Therapy comes at a time when traditional approaches to psychotherapy have given way to multidimensional strategies that best serve the needs of diverse groups who are grappling with the many challenges unique to family therapy practice. With expanded coverage of different models along with new developments in evidence based and postmodern practices, this integrative textbook bridges the gap between science and systemic relational approaches as it guides the reader through each stage of family therapy. Part I lays the groundwork by introducing the first, second, and third generation models of family therapy, teaching the reader to integrate different elements from these models into a systemic structure of practice. Part II explores the practical application of these models, including scripts for specific interventions and rich case examples that highlight how to effectively work with diverse client populations. Students will learn how to make connections between individual symptoms and cutting edge family practices to respond successfully to cases of substance abuse, trauma, grief, depression, suicide risk, violence, LGBTQ families, and severely mentally ill clients and their families. Also included are study guides for each model and a glossary to review main concepts. Aligned with the Association of Marital and Family Therapy Regulatory Boards (AMFTRB) knowledge and content statements, this textbook will be key reading for graduate students who are preparing for the national licensing exam in marriage and family therapy.

Caring for God's People Philip Culbertson, 2000-01-01 Culbertson has built his text around the ideal of Christian wholeness and maturity: a healthy interconnectedness of self within community. Culbertson presents three schools of counseling theory: family systems theory, narrative counseling theory, and object relations theory. Each of these is explained and then applied to various counseling situations: pre-marital counseling, marriage counseling, divorce counseling, counseling gay men and women, and grief counseling. Culbertson addresses issues of gender, families, sexual orientation, the relationship of emotions to spirituality, and the relevance of the counselor's own self-understanding. From publisher's description: Clinical Handbook of Pastoral Counseling Robert J. Wicks, Richard D. Parsons, Donald Capps, 1993 Building on the groundbreaking original work with the same title, these articles focus on current issues such as certain life stages, special populations, the devalued and abused, the addicted, and special issues of the 1990s.

Family Therapy Sourcebook, Second Edition Fred P. Piercy, Douglas H. Sprenkle, Joseph L. Wetchler, 1996-10-10 While there are many volumes that survey the field of family therapy, Family Therapy Sourcebook provides something different: a roadmap to classic and state-of-the-art work on foundational issues in theory, research, and practice. More than a textbook or a summary of primary sources, this volume is a comprehensive guide to original source materials for the student or teacher of family therapy. Covering the traditional family therapies and more, each chapter presents a selective annotated bibliography, highlights key concepts and clinical techniques, discusses research issues, and proposes creative teaching strategies. Describing helpful assignments and experiential learning exercises for educators, the authors share valuable expertise gained from years of teaching.

Church Health for the Twenty-First Century John

Marshall Crowe, 2017-03-21 What does the Bible have to say about church health In this new resource from John Marshall Crowe clergy and lay leaders alike will discover What are the characteristics of churches where Jesus is the head or not How to disciple church leaders into a healthy team Are the Great Commission and the Great Commandment connected to ministry for the mentally ill How can biblical preaching promote church health All types of churches and all kinds of pastors will find this a useful and inspiring book for individual or small group study Helpful questions follow each chapter to assist in stimulating thoughtful discussion and meaningful action Restoring the Soul of a Church Nancy Myer Hopkins, Mark R. Laaser, 1995 The Interfaith Sexual Trauma Institute has commissioned this pastoral work which focuses on the healing of congregations following clergy sexual misconduct The book discusses the original problem of sexual misconduct and exploitation and then focuses on those neglected secondary victims of abuse the congregation the wider community other clergy the wider church the offender's family and the pastor who takes over Growing Love in Christian Marriage Third Edition - Pastor's Manual Jane P Ives, S. Clifton Ives, 2013-03 Life together begins with a strong foundation A Christian Approach to Work and Family Burnout Thomas V. Frederick, Scott E. Dunbar, 2019-08-27 In A Christian Approach to Work and Family Burnout Calling Caring and Connecting Thomas V Frederick and Scott E Dunbar provide a Christian spiritual model to prevent and cope with burnout caused by the workplace and conflict with family Coupled with indifference and lack of urgency burnout eliminates a sense of purposefulness and results in psychological depletion To counter this Frederick and Dunbar stress the importance of connecting with God in order to understand intrinsic motivations and redefine work as a calling and means to care for others Practical Psychology for Pastors, 2nd Edition William R. Miller, Kathleen A. Jackson, 2010-05-01 This practical handbook takes a totally fresh approach to the work of pastoral counselors by drawing on recent research and developments in the health and behavioral sciences Thoroughly revised and updated this edition incorporates new or expanded coverage of topics such as a new chapter on Pastoral Self Care which offers advice on maintaining psychological health avoiding crisis and preventing personal and occupational burnout the integration of counseling with other pastoral roles and functions pastoral counseling ethics how to help people build personal motivation for change grief counseling and crisis intervention post traumatic stress physical and sexual abuse and personality disorders I Have Called You Friends Kevin Thew Forrester, 2003 I do not call you servants any longer because the servant does not know what the master is doing but I have called you friends because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my father John 15:15 These words of Jesus to his disciples teach that the mutuality of friendship is at the heart of a Christian community When baptized into that community we accept this mutuality and desire to serve others Kevin Thew Forrester says We can go so far as to say that to be a member of the community entails being a minister Baptism and ministry are two sides of the same coin This ministry is the responsibility of all baptized members of the church not merely the ordained Drawing on experiences of the people in the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan the author challenges the whole church to seek this mutual ministry as the key to its future health and mission This book coordinates with the LifeCycles program from LeaderResources In It for the Long Haul Glenn E. Ludwig,2002-01-01 When pastors and congregations come together in ministry they generally do so with the hope that the relationship will be long lasting and dynamic The reality however is that long term pastorates are an increasingly rare phenomenon in congregations White there are many reasons that most pastors can only sustain their ministries in a parish for a relatively limited number of years Glenn Ludwig argues that this does not have to be the case if both pastors and congregations take deliberate steps toward an enduring friendship Teaching for a Culturally Diverse and Racially Just World Eleazar S. Fernandez,2014-02-25 Cultural and ethnic diversity is the reality of our world and much more so in this age of heightened globalization Yet do our ways of doing theological education match with our current reality and hopes for a colorful and just tomorrow How shall we do theological formation so it helps give birth to a culturally diverse racially just and hospitable world This edited volume gathers the voices of minoritized scholars and their white allies in the profession in response to the above questions More particularly this volume gathers the responses of these scholars to the questions What is the plight of theological education Who are the teachers Who are our students What shall we teach How shall we teach How shall we form and lead theological institutions It is the hope of this volume to contribute to the making of theological education that is hospitably just to difference s and welcoming of our diverse population which is our only viable future When we embody this vision in our daily educational practices particularly in the training of our future religious leaders we may help usher in a new colorful and just world Church Planting in Post-Christian Soil Christopher B. James,2018 Defying predictions of the inevitable decline of Christianity in the US Church Planting in Post Christian Soil presents the untold story of new churches springing up in Seattle one of the most post Christian cities in the nation Work, Family and Religion in Contemporary Society Nancy Tatom Ammerman,Wade Clark Roof,2014-02-04 Until recently religious institutions have been organized to suit the traditional American family where the wife stayed at home caring for children Today churches and synagogues are beginning to adapt to the reality of the American family dual career marriages high levels of divorce interfaith marriages partnerships that may not be marriages Religious organizations must serve families that don t fall into the Ozzie and Harriet mold The first group of papers in this edited volume documents changing trends in the connection between religion work and the family In the second part of the book we see how changing families and flexible congregations are experimenting with new forms of religious life Short Term Spiritual Guidance Duane R. Bidwell, This book represents a significant departure from most contemporary writing about spiritual direction While most writers focus on long term relationships of guidance specifically envisioning long listening sessions Bidwell changes focus Spiritual direction he insists typically requires intervention in a specific crisis or situation or question is not formal lasts fewer than five sessions and must be actively and intentionally focused on the person s growth Bidwell s work shows what spiritual directors can learn from the short term therapy model especially about enabling people briefly but effectively to learn to listen on their own and with others for God's presence Focusing on how God is already active in the directee's life allows the participants to identify God's action and respond in ways that collaborate with that identified movement of the Spirit
