This book will look in detail at the priorities of the higher education sector in the post COVID 19 era and the changes that must be adopted by universities and governments. These changes will allow the higher education sector to emerge from the crisis and build short and long term resilience. The onset of the COVID 19 pandemic has induced sudden changes worldwide by setting a global lockdown that has impacted all industries and sectors affecting our daily lives and forcing us to adapt to a new normal. This book is the first major account of how the pandemic has shaken universities and higher education institutions in the Arab world today and tomorrow. Crucially, it examines the responses of universities to COVID 19, highlights their current position, and addresses the negative and positive outcomes. Has this crisis become an adversity or an opportunity for higher education institutions?
