Identity And Violence The Illusion Of Destiny:

Identity and Violence Amartya Sen, 2007 Amartya Sen argues that most of the conflicts in the contemporary world arise from individuals' notions of who they are and which groups they belong to, local national religious which define themselves in opposition to others. Identity & Violence Amartya Sen, 2006 The World May Be More Riven By Murderous Violence Than Ever Before Yet Nobel Laureate Amartya Sen Argues In This Sweeping Philosophical Work That Its Brutalities Are Driven As Much By Confusion As By Inescapable Hatred Sen Argues In His New Book That Conflict And Violence Are Sustained Today No Less Than The Past By The Illusion Of A Unique Identity Indeed The World Is Increasingly Taken To Be Divided Between Religions Or Cultures Or Civilizations Ignoring The Relevance Of Other Ways In Which People See Themselves Through Class Gender Profession Language Literature Science Music Morals Or Politics And Denying The Real Possibilities Of Reasoned Choices In Identity And Violence He Overturns Such Stereotypes As The The Monolithic Middle East Or The Western Mind Through His Penetrating Investigation Of Such Subjects As Multiculturalism Fundamentalism Terrorism And Globalization He Brings Out The Need For A Clear Headed Understanding Of Human Freedom And A Constructive Public Voice In Global Civil Society The World Sen Shows Can Be Made To Move Towards Peace As Firmly As It Has Recently Spiralled Towards War. Cape Town 2007 Pramila Bennett, 2009 The 17th Triannual Congress of the International Association for Analytical Psychology took place in Cape Town South Africa in August 2007 The plenary presentations are printed in this volume A CD with all the congress presentations and a selection of images is also included Listed here are just a few of the many presentations Journeys Encounters Clinical Communal Cultural by Joe Cambray How Does One Speak of Social Psychology in a Nation in Transition by Mamphela Ramphele Trauma Forgiveness and the Witnessing Dance Making Public Spaces Intimate by Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela Shifting Shadows Shaping Dynamics in the Cultural Unconscious by Catherine Kaplinsky Journey to the Center Images of Wilderness and the Origins of the Southern African Association of Jungian Analysts by Graham S Saayman Panel Prehistoric Rock Art The Biped Surprised by Christian Gaillard and Harnessing the Brain Vision and Shamanism in Upper Paleolithic Western Europe by J D Lewis Williams Amartya Sen Christopher W. Morris, 2010 A volume of essays on aspects of Amartya Sen's hugely influential and multi-disciplinary work Towards the Dignity of Difference? Mojtaba Mahdavi, 2016-02-24 The rise of popular social movements throughout the Middle East North Africa Europe and North America in 2011 challenged two hegemonic discourses of the post Cold War era Francis Fukuyama's The End of History and Samuel Huntington's The Clash of Civilizations The quest for genuine democracy and social justice and the backlash against the neoliberal order is a common theme in the global mass protests in the West and the East This is no less than a discursive paradigm shift a new beginning to the history a move towards new alternatives to the status quo This book is about difference and dialogue it embraces The Dignity of Difference and promotes dialogue However it also demonstrates the limits of dialogue as a useful and universal approach for resolving conflicts particularly in cases involving asymmetric and unequal power relations The distinguished group of authors suggests in this volume that there is a third way of addressing global tensions one that rejects the extremes of both universalism and particularism This third way is a radical call for an epistemic shift in our understanding of us other and good evil a radical approach toward accommodating difference as well as embracing the plural concept of the good The authors strengthen their alternative approach with a practical policy guide by challenging existing policies that either exclude or assimilate other cultures that wage the constructed global war on terror and that impose a western neo liberal discourse on non western societies This important book will be essential reading for all those studying civilizations globalization foreign policy peace and security studies multiculturalism and ethnicity regionalism global governance and international political economy

Food and Nutrition Systems in Urban India Neetu Choudhary,2023-12-18 This book explores identity mediated dynamics of food and nutrition entitlement in urban India analysing concerns around equity access to food and public health The issues of disentanglement and identity dynamics when it comes to nutrition and health are more intricate in the urban context due to a greater population and cultural diversity While in the global north urban food planning is increasingly dependent on local government in developing countries urban nutrition is yet to be considered a serious policy issue This book with a disaggregated analysis for urban India and an in depth case study of Mumbai examines how malnutrition in India is becoming an urban challenge It discusses how far caste religion and migratory identities serve as a source of deprivation and analyses the role of local governance particularly municipal governance and urban planning in facilitating the disentanglement It also offers suggestions for the global south to reverse the stark inequality in its urban centres and address nutrition challenges by developing their own sustainable and resilient food systems This book is an essential read for scholars and researchers of public health nutrition urban sociology urban planning development studies political sociology public policy and political studies

Political Governance and Minority Rights Lipi Ghosh,2020-11-29 This volume brings together a collection of essays analysing the current scenario in South and Southeast Asia with respect to the position of minority groups Based on an in depth investigation of some of the lasting minority majority conflicts of the post colonial period in countries that often escape comparison the articles are a rich and critical exposition of the social economic cultural and political dimensions of these struggles The central question being addressed is that of community rights in the modern nation state and how these are being understood by the two concerned parties and where and when thereof a situation of conflict arose

Identity, Islam and the Twilight of Liberal Values Terri Murray,2018-10-31 Since its publication in 1992 an array of commentators have criticised Francis Fukuyama's optimism in The End of History and the Last Man for supposing that liberal democracy is the one political model with sufficient moral and practical resilience to endure through the vicissitudes of future historical events In hindsight it seems Fukuyama underestimated liberal democracy's ethno religious rivals and religious fundamentalism's powerfully resistant bulwark against liberal democracy This book offers a trenchant analysis of the post

millennial cultural shift away from the defining liberal social values of the post war and post colonial global revolutionary movements It dissects the incoherent reasoning by which the liberal values of racial equality tolerance diversity feminism and gender have been evacuated of their past meanings and put into the service of a reactionary politics that uses superficially plausible bait to sell the same regressive ideology that religious social conservatives have been peddling for decades

Collectivistic Religions Slavica Jakelic, 2016-05-23 Collectivistic Religions draws upon empirical studies of Christianity in Europe to address questions of religion and collective identity religion and nationalism religion and public life and religion and conflict It moves beyond the attempts to tackle such questions in terms of choice and religious nationalism by introducing the notion of collectivistic religions to contemporary debates surrounding public religions Using a comparison of several case studies this book challenges the modernist bias in understanding of collectivistic religions as reducible to national identities A significant contribution to both the study of religious change in contemporary Europe and the theoretical debates that surround religion and secularization it will be of key interest to scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology political science religious studies and geography

Identity Gerald Izenberg, 2016-03-30 Identity The Necessity of a Modern Idea is the first comprehensive history of identity as the answer to the question who or what am I It covers the century from the end of World War I when identity in this sense first became an issue for writers and philosophers to 2010 when European political leaders declared multiculturalism a failure just as Canada which pioneered it was hailing its success Along the way the book examines Erik Erikson's concepts of psychological identity and identity crisis which made the word famous the turn to collective identity and the rise of identity politics in Europe and America varieties and theories of group identity debates over accommodating collective identities within liberal democracy the relationship between individual and group identity the postmodern critique of identity as a concept and the ways it nonetheless transformed the social sciences and altered our ideas of ethics At the same time the book is an argument for the validity and indispensability of identity properly understood Identity was not a concept before the twentieth century because it was taken for granted The slaughter of World War I undermined the honored identities of prewar Europe and as a result the idea of identity as something objective and stable was thrown into question at the same time that people began to sense that it was psychologically and socially necessary We can't be at home in our bodies act effectively in the world or interact comfortably with others without a stable sense of who we are Gerald Izenberg argues that while it is a mistake to believe that our identities are givens that we passively discover about ourselves decreed by God destiny or nature our most important identities have an objective foundation in our existential situation as bodies social beings and creatures who aspire to meaning and transcendence as well as in the legitimacy of our historical particularity
