

INSTANT INFATUATION FORMULA

If you've got any single girlfriends, coordinate some jaunts with them. Share with them what you've been learning from this volume. Tell them that over the next 30 days, you're going to go out together, explore some brand-new homes, and meet some great boys. Even if you don't wind up meeting Mr. Right on your first few tries, you are able to use to go and have an enjoyable day and a lot of titbits with your friends.

This doesn't simply intend going to bars, nightclubs, or parties. You have opportunities to meet guys every time you leave the house. The key is for you to start applying these opportunities instead of letting them pass you by.

BREAKING THE ICE

Here's the thing: Women are always hoping that a man will make the first move. And a lot of the time, guys will—but there's no rule that says you've got to wait for him to do it.

I've approached guys before. Not just at bars and parties. I've struck up conversations with cute guys at the gym. At Starbucks. At the dog park. In the elevator at my office building.

I'm not trying to imply that I'm constantly "on the prowl" for a man. But if I'm sharing an elevator with a handsome guy who doesn't have a ring on his finger, and we've made friendly eye contact, what's stopping me from starting a conversation if he won't?

(I'll explain the probable reason why men won't start a conversation in a moment...)

Usually, I break the ice by simply paying them a compliment. Stroke their ego a little bit. What man doesn't appreciate this, coming from a friendly woman?

(at my office building) "Pardon me, I love your tie, that's a great color..."

(at the dog park) "Your dog is adorable, is that a Shih Tzu? My friend is thinking about getting one, how are you two getting along?"

(at the gym) "Hey, I noticed you in the spin class earlier. What do you think of the instructor?"

When it comes to making the first move and starting a conversation with a guy, keep this in mind: just because HE doesn't make the first move does not mean that he's not interested.

It's WAY scarier than you think for men to come up and talk to you. Even for guys who are "hot!"
